2014 THEME REFLECTION

Hope: A World Afi re flows from the word proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent. Hope rooted in grace and goodness shines brightly on the face of Jesus. As we reflect on this Transfiguration moment, we too are drawn into that incredible experience. In the presence of the HOLY, we become shining stars of hope.

Light is not always our experience but it can always be our hope. Maya Angelou suggests that “God puts rainbows in the clouds so that each of us in our darkest and most dreaded moments can see a possibility of hope.” Believing in the brightness even in the midst of the sometimes cloudiness and knowing that the fruit of hope is boldness, we commit to light fires of hope and set our world ablaze with God’s amazing Word of Life.

SPEAKERS Over the four days, Congress 2014 will offer 309 workshops presented by over 206 speakers, with topics ranging from personal growth to music to spiritual topics – offered in three languages: English, Spanish and Vietnamese. And our featured Keynote (in English) is on Saturday with our English and Spanish Addresses on Sunday.

ART EXHIBIT Karen Schmidt creates sculptures that convey spiritual truth through symbol, gesture and form. Her liturgical sculptures speak on many levels and draw the viewer into contemplation. Her work is installed across America, and her studio in Anaheim, Calif., serves as a center to connect and support local artists. (Arena Lobby)

FILM SHOWCASE The annual Film Showcase, in partnership with Loyola Marymount University, presents excerpts from a number of feature films, shorts, documentaries, experimental and animated films, whose thematic elements are grounded in Catholic social teaching, justice, ministry, spirituality and theology. (Friday evening)

SACRED SPACE In addition to the chapel, Eucharistic Adoration, the sacrament of reconciliation and a labyrinth, this year at Sacred Space you can pray the Stations of the Cross with an artistic display of artifacts left behind by our undocumented brothers and sisters who traverse the U.S.-Mexican border.

SACRED ILLUMINATIONS A perennial feature at Congress is Sacred Illuminations, a mystical choreography of light and sound. Incorporating her newest liturgical and fine art photography and reflections, Sister Rose Marie Tulacz, SND, will bring us deeper in surrender to the care and to the heart of God. Come reflect and pray. (Saturday evening.)
ABOUT CONGRESS

ANAHEIM The Anaheim Convention Center has been home to the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress since 1970. When the Los Angeles event made its way to Anaheim, the city was still part of the Los Angeles Archdiocese. On June 18, 1976, Pope Paul VI established the Diocese of Orange with Bishop William Johnson installed as its first bishop.

YOUTH DAY Held on Thursday, March 13, this day-long event for high school youth is an opportunity for students – from throughout the western states – to come together and share in a mix of workshops, liturgies, rallies and high energy. (See pages 7-15.)

ENTERTAINMENT Admission to Congress includes free lunchtime and evening concerts – ranging from contemporary Christian music to today’s leading Latino composers and artists – in addition to our Friday evening Film Showcase and our Young Adult events on Saturday.

LITURGIES Congress annually offers a number of liturgies of different character. Congress 2014 offers 16 Eucharistic Liturgies of different character, including Contemplative, Jazz, Mayan, Native American, Spanish, Tongan, Vietnamese and Young Adult as well as evening prayer, and Celtic and Taizé services. (See page 22.)

HALL EVENTS The Exhibit Hall is one of the liveliest location at Congress. Be sure to check out what is going on in the ORE Booth throughout the weekend. The adjacent Tech Center is the location for Friday’s Congress Chat with Archbishop José Gomez, and for SiriusXM Radio’s “Busted Halo” live broadcast. (Exhibit Hall A)

EXHIBIT HALL One of the perks of registering for Congress is the Exhibit Hall – showcasing over 250 companies as exhibitors ranging from religious art to music, from publishing houses to educational institutions, in addition to a variety of Los Angeles archdiocesan ministries. (Exhibitor listing on pages 90-91.)

SPEAKER INDEX

ALPHABETICAL WITH WORKSHOP SESSIONS
A Message from the Director

Dear Friends,

It is always a great joy for me to welcome you to our spirited Religious Education Congress. This amazing weekend offers many opportunities for re-energizing our lives, for resourcing and enriching our ministries.

This year’s theme, “Hope: A World Afire,” flows from the transfiguration story proclaimed on the second Sunday of Lent. Hope rooted in grace and goodness shines brightly on the face of Jesus. Knowing that the fruit of hope is boldness, we commit to light fires of hope and set our world ablaze with the Gospel story and our commitment to the catechetical ministry.

The variety of workshops and keynotes available throughout the weekend are excellent resources for formation and enrichment for you and for your communities of faith. The opportunity to listen and be renewed by the wisdom offered by national and international speakers is truly gift and blessing.

Our spirits are sure to be lifted by the inspirational liturgical celebrations, entertainment and multicultural experiences provided. At the center of the many activities, there is also opportunity to spend time in prayer in the contemplative environment provided in Sacred Space, walk the labyrinth or avail of the sacrament of reconciliation.

Thank you for your wonderful leadership and your faithful dedication to sharing the Good News. I look forward to greeting you at this spirit-filled event.

Sincerely,

Sr. Edith Prendergast,
Director, Religious Education
Archdiocese of Los Angeles

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Welcome to the 2014 Religious Education Congress of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles!

The theme that gathers us this year, “Hope: A World Afire,” is a wonderful invitation for each one of us. The more we grow in the theological virtue of hope, the more we will be able to set the world on fire, the more we will be able to transform it into a better place, filled with love, peace, justice and respect for all.

In order to do this, we should always remember what kind of hope we are talking about. Pope Francis explained it beautifully:

"Hope is not optimism. Hope is a present, it’s a gift from the Holy Spirit. St. Paul tells us that hope has a name. Hope is Christ. If you don’t say: ‘I have hope in Jesus Christ, a person that’s alive, that lives in the Eucharist, that is present in His word,’ that is not hope. It could be good mood, optimism..."

"Jesus, the hope, renews everything: in my life, in your life, in our lives. He rebuilds. And what He builds again is precisely the reason of our hope. He’s the reason of our hope. And this hope does not delude because He is faithful. This is the virtue of hope."

"May the Lord, who is the hope of glory, who is the center, the whole, help us in this path: to give hope, to have passion for hope."

I pray that these days of formation, fellowship, prayer and worship may be an excellent opportunity to grow in knowledge and understanding of our Catholic faith, as well as love and devotion to the Lord Jesus, whom we serve in our daily life, in our work, ministry, family and public life.

May God bless you abundantly during this weekend and in all you do.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

THE EARLY HISTORY OF CONGRESS

The origins of the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress spring from the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, popularly known as CCD, a ministry that actually began in Los Angeles in 1922 under Bishop John Cantwell. Over the years, the number of students in the program grew and by 1937 the program was so successful that a full-time director was needed to run the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

In 1956, the first CCD “institute” was held for teachers and catechists of the program. Some 500 attended the two-day conference at Mount Carmel High School on Hoover Street in Los Angeles. In 1957, the event at Bishop Conaty Catholic Girls High School saw attendance double. In subsequent years, attendance continued to increase at Loyola University; and culminated with over 4,000 attending the event at Immaculate Heart College by 1960.

In 1967, with the cooperation of the dioceses of Monterey-Fresno and San Diego, the agenda for the first three-day “Congress” was set. The purpose was “to provide an atmosphere of Christian unity...for the benefit of each and the common good of all mankind.” It was January 13-15, 1967 that the first “Southern California Confraternity Congress” was held at the LAX-area International Hotel. In 1971, the first Youth Rally was held, which set the model for today’s Youth Day.

Today, the Religious Education Congress supports the diverse needs of parish leaders as well as sessions of benefit to families and for personal growth. Our last event, held February 21 (Youth Day) and February 22-24, 2013, had over 37,769 in attendance, with 185 speakers presenting 338 workshops in three languages (English, Spanish and Vietnamese), and with 20,783 registered for Congress. Youth Day attendance was 14,613. Our Exhibit Hall had 490 booths with 1,658 representatives from 226 different companies and organizations.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to register for Youth Day 2014! Our great annual event welcomes over 15,000 high school students and adults to the Anaheim Convention Center for a day of prayer, celebration and fun. It is a chance for us to gather as the larger Church and experience our Catholic faith through Eucharistic liturgies, workshops, rallies and more. Youth Day is a wonderful example of what it means to be an evangelizing community and helps us to fully realize our theme for the day: “Never Alone – Forever Accepted!”

Our Youth Day theme is grounded in the liturgical readings for the day and reminds us that God’s Spirit moves with us constantly. We are surrounded and empowered by the love that never ends, while we are also challenged to share that same love with others.

The Youth Day Coordinating Team – a group of young people and adults from across the Los Angeles Archdiocese – has planned an exciting day for every participant. We also hope you’ll download our “Youth Day 2014” iPhone App as soon as possible for updates about the day and as a way to encourage your young people to be fully engaged in the event. You can find the app by looking up “Los Angeles Youth Day” at the App Store. You’ll also notice that the following pages in this Guidebook give you tips on how to prepare young people for the day, as well as instructions for registration. PREPARING FOR THE DAY

YOUTH DAY 2014 LITURGICAL READINGS
Youth Day 2014 takes place on Thursday of the First Week of Lent. The Youth Day Coordinating Team used the readings of the day to prepare our theme and other important parts of Youth Day. We invite you to share these readings with your young people and adults so they may reflect in preparation for our event.

- First Reading: Esther (Cycle C) 12:14-16, 23-25
- Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 138: 1-2ab, 2cde-3, 7c-8
- Gospel: Matthew 7: 7-12

REFLECTING ON THE THEME

“NEVER ALONE, FOREVER ACCEPTED!”
Young people often describe Youth Day as inspiring, uniting, energizing, celebrating. These are all words of action, and that is very fitting for our day. Youth Day strives to help connect young people to the larger Church and to help them see they are not alone in their faith. It is a day that we know helps all participants to see that we are each called to make our faith real in our lives every day of the year and not just on this special day. The readings for Youth Day echo these same sentiments and they are full of action words, as well – ASK, SEEK, KNOCK! The readings resound with an invitation to trust God, to know that God’s love endures forever, and to know that each of us has an important part in God’s plan. As a community of faith, we are truly NEVER ALONE and are FOREVER ACCEPTED. We are supported and encouraged by God through this community that surrounds us – it is the living example of the hope that bursts from the scriptures we proclaim this day.

At the same time, these readings are a challenge to each of us, as well. We are called by God to also be hope for others. We are strengthened in our desire to become proclaimers of the Good News in our families, at our parishes and schools, and through all of our interactions in this wonderful world. God’s love shines through our actions and our words as we help others to know they are NEVER ALONE and FOREVER ACCEPTED. For it is truly when we “remain in God” that we are able to best share God’s Good News.

It is good to know that we are not alone as we do God’s work. God surrounds us with our friends and families so that we are continually encouraged to grow in our faith and deepen our awareness of how we are constantly blessed in amazing ways. Youth Day is a great way to be reminded of our blessings. This is the great gift of the day – to be united with other believers so we are strengthened for the journey today, tomorrow and forever.

We hope this day helps every participant see that we are “Never Alone – Forever Accepted!”

VOLUNTEERING FOR THE DAY
The Youth Day staff invites any adult not chaperoning a parish or school group to be a volunteer for our event. Youth Day volunteers are assigned to a variety of positions throughout the day. This is a great way to experience Youth Day without the duties of being a chaperone – and to enjoy our event for free. To volunteer for Youth Day 2014, an adult needs to have been trained in accordance with their Diocesan Youth Protection policies and have had the appropriate diocesan required background check. Please contact your Diocesan Youth Ministry Office to find out more details about your required programs. For more information about volunteering or to submit your name to be part of our team, please contact Erin Avila at emavila@sbcglobal.net or at (559) 259-8232. Come join the fun! We need you.

SUPPORTING OTHERS
In an effort to enhance the work of the Office of Religious Education in developing youth leaders across the Los Angeles Archdiocese and to support the work of other key organizations, there will be a collection during liturgies at Youth Day. We will use some of this money to help young people who need assistance to attend programs at the local, regional and national levels. We also share part of the collection with a different organization each year, and for 2014 we have chosen the Mission Doctors Association’s “One Million Patients Project” (www.onemillionpatients.org). We ask that you share this information with participants coming to Youth Day and emphasize how their contributions can continue the formation, education and quality of life for others. Thank you in advance.
REGISTERING FOR THE DAY
All high school students (9th-12th grades ONLY) are invited to register for Youth Day. Students must register with an adult Chaperone, who must attend with the group. Two adult Chaperones must accompany the students. Each group chooses Track 1 or Track 2 (Arena access allowed only during assigned times) and then selects the Convention Center workshop of their choice. Convention Center workshops will be offered twice—once in the morning and once in the afternoon—so everyone gets a chance to participate. We try to accommodate first choices for workshops, but sometimes they fill up and we must move you to your second choice.

Note: Youth Day often fills up close to the January 22 date for the fee increase. Please understand that there is limited seating for the event. If Youth Day fills to capacity prior to the January cut-off date, we will close the day and return your registration. Please try to register as soon as possible. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, but please understand that there are no exceptions.

Remember, there are two tracks to Youth Day and every group must choose one. This allows every participant to experience all Arena activities while still giving everyone the chance to hear two workshops (one is automatically chosen for you when you are in the Arena). To enter into the Arena for either Track 1 or Track 2, please line up and use the doors nearest the Hilton Hotel. We allow the exact number of participants as there are seats in the Arena. So please know that there will be room for everyone. Your name badge will make it clear as to which track you have been assigned. We ask you to not go to the Arena until your assigned track. Lastly, please remember that we will clear out the Arena at mid-day and no one is allowed to stay in that space for the entire event.

TRACK 2
8:00 AM – OPENING SESSIONS
For those who register for Track 2, the excitement of Youth Day 2014 begins with the opportunity to experience one of two energetic Opening Sessions offered in the Convention Center. Hall B will welcome Michael James Mette and band; the third-floor Ballroom will host The Jeremy and Ryan Band. Young people from across the Archdiocese will also be part of these great events. Groups are welcome to attend either of these high-energy sessions—you get to choose that day!

9:30 AM – CONVENTION WORKSHOPS
After the Opening Sessions, Track 2 participants will be able to attend one of the 12 workshops offered in the Convention Center meeting rooms. We suggest that you share the list of speakers with your young people and allow them to choose (in groups of 10 with a chaperone) those topics that interest them. You can find the listing on the following pages.

11:00 AM – LUNCH
Following the workshops, Track 2 participants are invited to enjoy lunch with old and new friends. There are places throughout the Convention Center for purchasing food. The Arena will open for Track 2 participants at 11:45 am. Everyone will need to enter through the main Arena glass doors near the fountain and may line up early. There are seats for everyone—so enjoy lunch!

12:15 PM – ARENA RALLY
For Track 2, the excitement of Youth Day continues in the Arena with an energetic Rally. Noelle Garcia and band will be on hand to get everyone energized, followed by young people from the Archdiocese leading us in prayer and other fun activities.

ARENA WORKSHOP
Immediately following the rally, Track 2 participants will remain in the Arena to be inspired by our featured speakers, ValLimar Jansen and Thomas Awaipo. Val and Thomas will be focusing on our great theme for the day and engaging all of us around how we can become hope for the world.

ARENA EUCHARISTIC LITURGY
Youth Day ends for Track 2 participants with a Spirit-filled liturgy presided by our own Los Angeles Archbishop José Gomez. The music will be led by an Archdiocesan Youth Choir and instrumentalists under the direction of Ed Archer from Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Santa Clarita. Please note that this liturgy will begin approximately at 2:15 pm.

3:45 PM – DISMISSEL
After being reminded that we are “Never Alone – Forever Accepted,” participants will be sent out to share the Good News throughout the world!
YOUTH DAY

MARCH 13, 2014

ARENA WORKSHOP

Both Youth Day tracks get to see our Arena speakers. You can make your choice of Convention Workshop from the remaining 12 speakers whose sessions are held in the Convention Center meeting rooms.

NEVER ALONE – ONE HUMAN FAMILY

Meet and listen to Thomas Awiapo, as he is joined by the dynamic presenter and singer ValLimar Jansen. Together, these two powerful speakers share their stories of survival and success: Thomas in Ghana, West Africa, and ValLimar in the United States. Through their presence and their personal stories of hunger and hope, Thomas and ValLimar bring to life God’s invitation to live as one human family. Through storytelling, reflection, prayer, music and movement, Thomas and ValLimar inspire us to embrace the knowledge that we are truly “Never Alone and Forever Accepted!”

Thomas Awiapo

Orphaned before the age of 10, Thomas Awiapo survived bleak poverty and hunger in his small village in Ghana, Africa. The loss of two younger siblings to malnutrition and his search for food at age 12 led him to school, where he eventually won scholarships to attend college. Today, he works for Catholic Relief Services as an international speaker and trainer for community leaders throughout Ghana, where he lives with his wife and four children.

ValLimar Jansen

ValLimar Jansen serves the Church as a composer, singer, storyteller, inspirational speaker and evangelizer. She received critical acclaim for her solo albums “You Gotta Move” and “Anointing,” winning UNITY Awards recognition in 2008 and 2010. She was Emcee for the 2011 National Catholic Youth Conference held in Indianapolis, and she performed with her husband, Frank, at the Loreto/Angora International Papal Event in Italy, which was broadcast on EWTN and across the world.

A DISCIPLES IN OUR OWN FAMILIES

Blessed Pope John Paul II said, “When you proclaim the Gospel, you yourselves grow as you become more deeply rooted in Christ and mature as Christians.” Welcome to this call to serve not only in your community but also in your own families. This workshop will focus on providing a clear, manageable and vibrant understanding of the call to discipleship to those who are the closest to you – your family.

Katherine Angulo

Born in Mexico and raised in Bogota, Colombia, Katherine Angulo is fluent in English, Spanish and French. She has over 14 years of experience in youth ministry, campus ministry and religious education serving the Miami Archdiocese, the Diocese of Richmond, Va., and the Diocese of Knoxville, Tenn., where she was Director of Pastoral Ministries at St. Mary’s Church in Johnson City, Tenn. She is currently serving as Director of Youth Ministry for the Diocese of Raleigh, N.C.
B LOVE – THE FUNDAMENTAL VOCATION FOR EVERYBODY

This workshop will focus on the fundamental vocation for every human person without exception: Love. Love is for everybody. For all the different states of life in the Church, as well as for believers and non-believers. What does this mean? How does it happen? What happens when this doesn’t happen? Who’s to say? Come and see.

Fr. Stan Fortuna, CFR
Fr. Stan Fortuna, a Catholic priest, is one of the founding members of the Community of Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. Before he entered the priesthood, he was a professional jazz musician, and he continues to play bass and sing at his presentations at conferences both nationally and internationally. In 1987, Fr. Fortuna established the non-profit Francesco Productions to record and distribute evangelical music and video productions with all of the proceeds benefiting the community’s work with the poor of South Bronx, N.Y.

C PRAYER THROUGH POP MUSIC

Have you ever listened to a song that describes exactly how you feel? Whether you’ve been through a break-up and played Taylor Swift relentlessly or felt in love and listened to Jason Mraz all day, we know that music plays a huge part in our lives. While we may think that because these songs aren’t bluntly “Christian” they couldn’t be prayer, Jackie Francois will share how a lot of pop music mirrors the psalms and can actually help us to pray! Come sing, laugh and pray with Jackie, and take away some valuable insight that will stay with you for the rest of your life as you hear your favorite pop songs!

Jackie Francois Angel
Jackie Francois Angel is a full-time traveling worship leader, speaker and blogger from Orange County, Calif. For the last seven years, she has traveled around the world speaking and singing. Francois has performed at many major Catholic and interfaith events, from World Youth Day in Madrid to national youth conferences and various diocesan conferences. Her CDs are “Your Kingdom is Glorious” and “Divine Comedy,” released by OCP/spiritandsong.com.

D “LOL” – LOVING OUR LITURGY

Liturgy can be boring, yet it is one of the most powerful ways we can connect with our awesome God. The boredom often comes from a lack of understanding and recognizing where God is in all of the words, rituals and incense. Fr. Rob Galea will share about his coming-to-appreciation and love of the liturgy and how it played a vital role in his freedom from anger, bitterness and addiction.

Fr. Rob Galea
Fr. Rob Galea, a Catholic priest, is currently serving as an assistant parish priest and also as a Chaplain at Notre Dame College, both in Shepparton, Victoria, Australia. How do we deal with people who are different than ourselves and aren’t a “flavor” we like? What does Jesus ask of us?

WHERE FAITH AND REAL LIFE COME TOGETHER: LIVING OUR FAITH IN THE WORLD

Join Greg Wasinski as he reminds us, in his genuine and humorous style, to “be nothing more than God created us to be.” He will help us find the ways Jesus is present in the world and how we can share this Good News with our friends, family, parents and, yes, quite possibly, even complete strangers. Greg’s own examples of courage and strength will put our relationship with God on display so that we may begin to encounter him more deeply. You won’t want to miss this workshop to learn that we should not be embarrassed by who we are in faith. Be proud to bring others into the wonderful experiences we have by living a life where Christ is No. 1 and the impact it can have on changing the world.

Those who become separated from their group and do not have name badges will not be allowed entry into the Convention Center or Arena.

LITURGIES/PRAYER SERVICES

THE LOS ANGELES Religious Education Congress continues to grow – as last year approximately 40,000 delegates attended. It remains the largest annual catechetical and liturgical gathering in the world.

Living in the gift, promise and spirit of the Second Vatican Council, our liturgies have also grown as they have embraced a wonderfully diverse church. We have worked diligently to inculcate the liturgy to authentically reflect the church of Los Angeles. Within the Los Angeles Archdiocese, liturgy is celebrated every Sunday in no fewer than 40 different languages.

Over the years, both the Congress band and choir have grown considerably in depth and membership. The Congress band today consists of approximately 40 instrumentalists and the choir boasts over 200 members representing six dioceses.

FRIDAY EVENING PRAYER OPPORTUNITIES (5:15 & 9:00 pm)

In addition to our liturgies, we offer non-Eucharistic evening prayer (vespers) and a later evening Celtic service. In the Celtic tradition, prayer was woven naturally as a liturgy of the hours, calling the heart to stop, listen and open to the presence and movement of God in all. As light departs at the end of the day, we gather in silence, prayer and chant, blessing the gift of our gathering and awakening the soul for the new tomorrow.

SATURDAY EVENING PRAYER OPPORTUNITIES (5:15 & 9:00 pm)

Our evening prayer is a non-Eucharistic vespers service. Later in the evening, there is a Taizé service offering. Taizé, named after the monastic order and city in France, uses silence and music that draws upon simple phrases taken from the psalms.

Asian and Pacific Presence: A Teaching Moment

Today, the Asian and Pacific communities in the United States – both those born in the United States and immigrants who came to the United States – span several generations. This tremendous increase in Asian and Pacific Catholics across the United States at the beginning of the third millennium is a teaching moment. It is also a teaching moment because of the welcoming spirit to which we are called in “The Church in America (Ecclesia in America)” and in the recent pastoral statement “Welcoming the Stranger Among Us: Unity in Diversity.” The Church in the United States is enjoined “to offer a genuine and suitable welcome [to newcomers], to share together as brothers and sisters at the same table, and to work side by side to improve the quality of life for society’s marginalized members.”

The Church is blessed with Asian and Pacific pastors, social workers, educators, diocesan directors and lay leaders who are actively and selflessly contributing to building the Kingdom of God in this country. The number of Asian and Pacific Catholics who have been given responsibility in church structures or are well-known in their fields of endeavor is growing.

Besides these living role models, Asian and Pacific Catholics come to the United States with a long heritage of extraordinary witness of life and martyrdom. The Church recently recognized many Asian saints and martyrs; however, the total number of saints and martyrs could fill an entire Asian and Pacific Litany of Saints.

I-01 KEEPING THE FAITH WHILE TEACHING THE FAITH!

This session is a great spiritual boost for anyone teaching the faith! To be “around” faith is not the same thing as “having” faith. With a little humor and genuine appreciation for what catechists and ministry professionals experience, this workshop provides great spiritual and practical suggestions on keeping our own faith strong and keeping us from mistaking our own spiritual journey with our frequent professional “near faith experiences”!

Steve Angrisano
Steve Angrisano has been a musician, music director and youth minister for over a dozen years. The Dallas-based veteran composer/storyteller has been featured at major conferences and events around the world – including appearances at World Youth Days, the National Catholic Youth Conference, and the L.A. RECongress and Youth Day – and at countless diocesan events in more than 200 dioceses. His latest recording is entitled “A New Day.”

I-02 THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Beginning in the 1950s, a movement began urging the church to embrace pre-evangelization and evangelization. This movement culminated in the writings of Pope Paul VI, Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI, and currently Pope Francis. This session will explore how Catholics can live practically the New Evangelization in their faith communities.

Fr. Robert Fabing, SJ
Fr. Robert Fabing has founded 89 marriage counseling and family therapy centers – The Jesuit Institute for Family Life International Network – with locations in Europe, Africa, Asia, Central America and the United States. The Jesuit priest is also founder and Director of the 36-Day program in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola at the Jesuit Retreat Center in Los Altos, Calif., where he has lived for 30 years. Fr. Fabing is author of five books and composer of 12 CDs of liturgical music with Oregon Catholic Press.

I-04 ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!

The barriers (rules) in so many parishes are preventing many young people, both single and married, from being present and getting involved in parish life. Let’s begin to put a stop to that. This workshop will take a look at those moments of contact between the parish and young adult people: weddings, baptisms, funerals, eulogies, sponsors (baptism/confirmations). In this session, an alternate model will be presented that is more inviting, inclusive and pastoral to these and other sacred moments in our spiritual lives.

Rev. John C. Cusick
John Cusick, a priest of the Chicago Archdiocese, has been an associate pastor, college seminary faculty member, coordinator and (since 1985) Director of Young Adult Ministry. He resides at Old St. Patrick’s Church in downtown Chicago. In May 2004, Fr. Cusick was appointed to the Executive Ethics Commission of the State of Illinois. In February 2012, he received the Blessed John XXIII Award from the Association of Chicago Priests for excellence in priestly ministry and significant contributions to the life of the Church in Chicago.

I-05 THE SLAVE ACROSS THE STREET: A TRUE STORY OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN THE STATES

Hear Theresa Flores’ powerful story of how an all-American 15-year-old was enslaved into the dangerous world of sex trafficking, all while living at home with unsuspecting parents in an upper middle-class suburb of Detroit. Her story peels the cover off of this horrific crime. Learn why this is a silent epidemic in the United States and how this is happening all around us without most of us even being aware. This is a “must” session for any parent or professional working with youth.

Theresa L. Flores, LSW, MS
Theresa Flores is a human trafficking survivor, best-selling author, victim’s advocate and founder of SOAP (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution). In 2009, the licensed social worker was appointed to the Ohio Attorney General’s Human Trafficking Commission and testified before the Ohio House and Senate; for her efforts, she received The Courage Award from the governor of Ohio. Flores is an international speaker and guest lecturer on the topic of human trafficking in the United States and abroad.

I-06 LEADERSHIP & SOCIAL JUSTICE: HOW CATHOLIC SCHOOLS CAN CHANGE OUR WORLD

Catholic schools are places where students can become leaders for a lifetime. Starting with kindergarteners, this dynamic presentation demonstrates how children who are taught the power of a “Social Justice” mind, the “7 Habits of Highly Effective People” and “Effective Behavioral Supports” can change the culture of a school and change the world. With practical examples, and a step-by-step process, you will learn how to support the current culture of your school and invite every child to the practice of effective leadership skills filled with hope.
I-07 THE RE-MAKING OF THE PAPACY: FROM POPE PAUL VI TO POPE FRANCIS
One of the most remarkable features of the last 50 years is the re-fashioning of the papacy in the wake of Vatican II. This workshop will briefly consider the ways in which Popes Paul VI, John Paul I, John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI have each left their mark on the papacy. However, particular attention will be given to the unique contributions of Pope Francis.

Dr. Richard Gaillardetz
Dr. Richard Gaillardetz is the Joseph Professor of Catholic Systematic Theology at Boston College. He formerly was Professor at the University of Toledo, Ohio, and Associate Professor at the University of St. Thomas in Minneapolis, Minn. Dr. Gaillardetz has authored over 100 pastoral and academic articles and written or edited 10 books, including “Keys to the Council” (co-authored with Catherine Clifford) and “When the Magisterium Intervenes.” He is currently President of the Catholic Theological Society of America.

I-08 TEMPTATION, SUFFERING AND FORGIVENESS: THE SPIRITUAL LIFE
Understanding the interior life is at best difficult, and at worst incomprehensible. As modern-day people, we have become less and less aware of the spiritual legacy to which we have been called. In this workshop, the daily human cycle of temptation, suffering and forgiveness will form the backdrop for an analysis of the Christian call to holiness, as an essential element of setting the world aflame, with the hope that is Christ.

Dr. Greer G. Gordon
Greer Gordon is a Roman Catholic theologian, author and lecturer. She has served on the administration and philosophy faculties at the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth; on the theology faculty at Regis College in Weston, Mass.; and as a diocesan director in Boston, Washington, D.C., Oakland, Calif., and Baton Rouge, La. Dr. Gordon was one of eight American women invited by the Vatican to respond to Pope John Paul II’s Encyclical on Women.

I-09 MAKING A DIFFERENCE: BEING NOT JUST THE BEST IN THE WORLD, BUT THE BEST FOR THE WORLD
Have you ever asked the question, “Why should I care anymore?” Peace comes when we see the difference between doing battle with life’s obstacles, and seeing this battle as an uninterrupted struggle. Yes, life is difficult. But if we see it only as a struggle, our mindset is consumed by the next bigger and badder thing – and we never arrive. Terry Hershey helps us see that we are not being asked to let go of the obstacle, but to let go of the struggle. This obstacle – whether pain or fear or limitation – is wrapped around an incredible and grace-filled gift. That gift is an inner life fueled by a capacity to doubt, question, dare, forgive, risk, receive, contribute, celebrate, delight and live unabashedly unafraid.

Rev. Terry Hershey
Terry Hershey is an inspirational speaker, humorist, author, dad, Protestant minister and landscape designer on Vashon Island in the Puget Sound near Seattle. His gardens and books have been featured in magazines and newspapers of the Pacific Northwest, and his work has been featured on CNN, PBS and NPR. Hershey is a regular contributor to The Hallmark Channel’s “New Morning” show, and regularly speaks throughout the United States and Canada.

I-10 FOCUSING ON FORGIVENESS: HOW TO PREPARE A SUCCESSFUL RECONCILIATION RETREAT FOR CHILDREN
Are you in need of some new ideas when preparing your classes for reconciliation? This workshop will provide practical ideas that can be used in a retreat format for religious education classes as well as Catholic school classes. We will discuss how to organize, set up and manage a half-day retreat for your classes. You will receive practical applications, ideas for games, book titles, musical suggestions and Bible story examples that really work!

Rhea Hristou
Rhea Hristou has 20 years of teaching experience in the Diocese of Salt Lake City, Utah. Since 1976, she has taught first through third grades and has earned numerous awards and twice nominated for “Teacher of the Year.” Hristou is currently a second grade teacher at St. Vincent’s Catholic School in Salt Lake City, where she is also Director of Sacramental Preparation. She is a Representative to the Common Core Curriculum team for National Catholic Schools and is an Intel Master Teacher Trainer in her diocese.

CONGRESS FACT:
In 1970, the then-named “Confraternity of Catholic Doctrine Congress” moved from the LAX airport area to its current home at the Anaheim Convention Center.
I-11 ST. FRANCIS, POPE FRANCIS AND A VISION FOR THE 21ST-CENTURY PARISH

The legacy of St. Francis and the leadership and message of Pope Francis paint a compelling portrait for a possible future for the American Catholic parish. Drawing from the narrative of St. Francis being called to “repair” or “rebuild” God’s Church in the 12th century, we will consider how Pope Francis is calling us to “repair” the current Church and how we might respond with creativity and compassion.

Jack J. Jezeel

Jack Jezeel spent six years in a Catholic Worker community before turning his attention to transformative education. For the past 12 years, he has given an average of 40 presentations and workshops per year, including keynote addresses — and was the keynote speaker for this Congress in 2011. Jezeel leads continuing education for priests, deacons and diocesan staff as well as parish, regional and national convenings. He is the original author of JustFaith and now serves as President of JustFaith Ministries.

I-12 FORMING STUDENTS WITH A GLOBAL CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVE

Catholic Relief Services, an agency of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, brings Catholic social teaching into action in over 100 countries around the world. This workshop will provide suggestions and examples of how to bring the global mission of the Church into the awareness of catechists, teachers and the people they serve. Participants can share best practices and explore some of the challenges they face in forming others in the principles of Catholic social teaching.

Most Rev. Gerald F. Kicanas, DD

Bishop Gerald Kicanas, ordained a priest for the Chicago Archdiocese, served in the seminar system there for over 25 years. In 1995, he was ordained as Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago. Six years later, he was appointed Coadjutor Bishop of Tucson, Ariz., and in 2003 was installed as Bishop. Bishop Kicanas is Chair of the Board of Directors for Catholic Relief Services and serves on various committees and other boards of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. He has presented at conferences across the country.

I-13 21 WAYS TO BUILD A MORE ROBUST CATHOLIC IDENTITY

If being Catholic doesn’t make a bit of difference in your everyday life, why bother? In this session, Joe Paprocki offers 21 tried-and-true practices that lead us to see differently and, as a result, to live and act differently.

Joe Paprocki, DMin

Joe Paprocki, National Consultant for Faith Formation at Loyola Press in Chicago, has over 30 years of experience in pastoral ministry. He has served as a Consultant for Catechetical Formation for the Chicago Archdiocese and as a parish pastoral associate and Director of Religious Education. I-14 SETTING HEARTS AFIRE: MUSIC AND DRAMA IN SCRIPTURE AND LITURGY

Internationally renowned Australian presenters Michael Mangan and Anne Frawley-Mangan will share their combined expertise in using the arts, especially music and drama, to help make school liturgies and religious education programs more vibrant, engaging and meaningful. I-15 THE BURNING BUSH: A MODEL FOR MINISTRY?

Moses saw a burning bush … but marveled that it wasn’t consumed. In it, he heard the voice of the Living God. How can we be alive, afire and zealous for God while not getting spent, consumed and turned into ash? How can we burn brightly to help reveal God?

Mike Patin

Mike Patin has worked in youth ministry since 1984, spending six years as a high school teacher and coach before working for the Catholic Youth Organization/Youth Ministry Office for the New Orleans Archdiocese. Patin was also on the adjunct faculty at the Notre Dame School of Theology Seminary in New Orleans. 1-16 WERE YOU THERE? WALKING THE ROAD TO CALVARY WITH JESUS

For Catholics, the Stations of the Cross are synonymous with Lent, Holy Week and especially Good Friday. This devotion, also known as the “Way of the Cross” or the “Via Dolorosa,” commemorates 14 key events on the day of Christ’s crucifixion. For many, praying through these 14 Stations has lost its impact and has become as routine as reciting the rosary. This workshop will help to awaken our understanding of the “Way of the Cross.” It will also help you enter into each Station with a renewed focus on being present for each moment. Soon, you will realize that “Were You There?” is more than a traditional slave spiritual. It is a call to be present with our Savior on the “Via Dolorosa.”

1-17 FEAR AND HER MANY CHILDREN: AS DAMPENING OUR HOPE AND OUR FIRE

All of us live with religious fears, fears about God, about life, and about our eternal destiny. What kind of fear is healthy in our lives and what kind is unhealthy? From where do our religious fears originate? How do we discern healthy fears from unhealthy ones? How does fear dampen both our hope and our religious fire? This session will be an exploration of the origins and effects of religious fear.

1-18 EVERYTHING IS SACRED: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

All of creation reveals the presence of God. The sacraments tell the story of the Incarnation of God in Jesus Christ and how the presence of Christ is embodied in the church today. They also tell of the relationship of Christians with the Son of God, and how we find the Holy Spirit in the world. This session will tell the story of Christianity from the perspective of the sacrament of baptism, the initiation into the community of Christ.

1-19 SINGING DANIEL: BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION IN THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN “SPIRITUALS”

Although they have been studied from the perspective of music, folk music and African-American musical forms for decades, it is rare to consider the spirituals as a form of serious biblical interpretation. In this workshop, Dr. Daniel Christopher will focus on a selection of spirituals that deal with themes from the stories in Daniel (chapters 1-6) and consider how many of these spirituals reflect rather significant, and even provocative, interpretations of the Book of Daniel. We will consider the meaning of “vernacular” interpretation of the Bible! Hopefully… some music will be featured! Stay tuned!

PERIOD I

1-21 A LONG LOOK AT THE LECTIONARY FOR MASS

1-22 HIV/AIDS: A CONTINUING CHALLENGE TO THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD

Despite efforts to increase access to treatment of HIV in order to reduce AIDS-related illnesses and death, this pandemic remains a challenge for the Church and the world. Significant numbers of people in developing countries still have no access to treatment, and global solidarity is decreasing because of “aid fatigue” and the global economic crisis. The Church has shouldered some 25 percent of AIDS care in the world, and continues to be present in communities when international agencies withdraw. This workshop will explore challenges and solutions for the Church’s ongoing response based in Catholic teaching and tradition.

Msgr. Robert J. Vitillo

1-27 SOLACE: THE ART OF ASKING THE BEAUTIFUL QUESTION

Human beings cannot quite believe the depth, drama and even the disappearances involved in the average human life. Each one of us grows almost against our will into a steadily unfolding story where the horizon gets broader and more mysterious, the understanding of loss and mortality more keen, the sense of time more fleeting, and the understanding of our own mistakes and omissions more apparent. In the midst of this deepening, we have to make a life that makes sense: There is no other life than the one that involves this constant beckoning, this invitation to the fiercer aspects of existence.

1-28 JUST START WHERE YOU ARE: TURNING THE NEXT CORNER IN YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE

Real spirituality dawns when God becomes as real as the problems and joys you face each day. With this in mind, Robert Wicks invites us to become actively and intimately involved in our own personal inner formation. In pursuit of this spiritual goal, some of the intriguing topics will include: rediscovering the lost virtue of the desert; when invited, enter the doorway to awe; mind the wisdom of spiritual sadness; and practice faithfulness and let God take care of the residue. Dr. Wicks will also address the importance of appreciating more clearly Jesus’ central call and the three doorways to living a more complete, generative and holy life.

2-02 DEVELOPING A CHILDREN’S LITURGICAL DANCE MINISTRY

There is more than one model to organize a successful and meaningful Liturgical Dance Ministry in your school or church. There is also the option of forming a ministry that goes out into your community to serve in this very special way! Learn how to work as a team with your priest, music director and all those involved in your celebrations. Participants should come ready to put down their notes and learn some simple dances and movement pieces appropriate for children’s liturgy!

2-06 WHO’S SORRY NOW? THE CHALLENGE OF FORGIVENESS

The themes of forgiveness, guilt and human sorrow are everywhere. Each of us carries wounds from past hurts, and each of us knows that we have hurt others. What does the Gospel say about relational brokenness and the healing power of forgiveness? Is forgiveness the same as reconciliation? Is it possible – or even healthy – to “forgive and forget”? This presentation explores these deeply human questions in the light of Jesus’ vision and practice: forgiveness is an intentional attitude of the heart, a journey rather than an event. And, in the end, it is a doorway to true freedom.

2-07 WHERE IS GOD IN ALL THIS?

If God is so good, why do bad things happen? Why doesn’t God prevent disasters and tragedy? Why are some people spared while others die? Is God punishing me or teaching me a lesson? It will change the way you pray and the way you minister with and comfort others.

2-15 TEACHING KIDS TO PRAY – PRAYING IN COLOR

Prayer is about being wide-eyed, openhearted, spontaneous and receptive. Kids are all of these things. But sometimes, like adults, they cannot find the words to say in their prayers. They feel shy with God. Their bodies wiggle, their minds daydream, and their eyes wander. Praying in Color invites wiggly bodies, dreamy minds and wandering eyes into prayer. With paper, colored pencils, markers, pens and doodles, children can pray for others, express their gratitude, or learn to listen for the “still small voice of God.” Bring a pen, colored pencils or markers, paper and a hard surface to draw on.

2-16 WHY CATHOLICS SHOULDN'T BE FUNDAMENTALISTS

Many Catholics and others receive their understanding of the Bible from the loudest voices on the radio, who often take positions that leave their listeners confused. This session will provide strategies for helping RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) instructors and parish Bible study leaders move adults from fundamentalist approaches to more satisfying, authentically Catholic interpretations of the Bible. The starting point will be both faith-filled and rational, combining an ongoing trust of the Holy Spirit’s inspiration with genuinely intelligent investigation. Bring your Bible.

2-17 HOPE AND FIRE: CATECHETICAL INSIGHTS ON THE HOLY SPIRIT

As Catholics throughout the world embark on the journey of a New Evangelization, it is imperative that we ponder how the Spirit that guides the Church on this important journey works in the lives of believers. 2-18 REKINDLING THE FLAME

The Celtic Christian propensity to find the Divine in nature speaks to many of the concerns of our present era. The ancient wisdom, visual images, poetry, prayers and blessings of Celtic Christian spirituality take us beyond words to re-ignite our imagination. Seeing through the sentimentality of the stories and legends surrounding saints Patrick and Brigid of Kildare, we re-discover the transformative power of becoming an Anam Cara (soulfriend) to ourselves and to those we meet on the road of life. They both epitomize the beauty of hospitality and companionship. Exploring their witness of tireless evangelization can re-ignite our own imaginations and creativity.

2-19 THAT’S A GOOD STORY! USING NARRATIVE TO TEACH ABOUT MORALITY

In teaching about morality from a Catholic perspective, especially in senior high school, a challenge the teacher faces is presenting complex and often countercultural ideas in ways that interest students and can facilitate future learning. One very valuable pedagogical technique is the use of narratives or stories. This is often a powerful way of introducing complex issues in a succinct but engaging manner. This workshop will examine the use of narratives as a means of presenting abstract notions, such as what conscience is and how it is formed.

Richard M. Rymarz

The road toward justice and inclusion of the marginalized in the church and in society can be fraught with roadblocks, hills and even danger. 2-22 DEVELOPING THE PARISH AS A COMMUNITY OF SERVICE: A PARISH FILLED WITH LIFE AND HOPE

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has declared that the purpose of a parish is “to feed and nurture people to be a leaven in society.” This workshop will focus on practical, concrete ways to achieve that. It will explore both the nurturing and the calling forth of all to assume their God-given call to ministry and service.

2-23 ANNOUNCERS OF A NEW PENTECOST
Pope John XXIII believed Vatican II could be a “new Pentecost.” That dream is still in progress, since we are the bearers of that message. It is time for us to re-discover the Holy Spirit in our midst and to realize what is made possible by this Spirit. We know that our time offers us numerous challenges. This session will examine these challenges and offer ways to “find” the Holy Spirit in our midst and spark the fire of renewal in ourselves and in those to whom we minister. We are guided by the belief that in the end we can discover some meaning to human existence, a meaning that is not imposed ... rather, a meaning that is already there, waiting to be discovered.

2-24 REVOLUTIONARY HOPE
Jesus was not a zealot, but his movement was revolutionary in that it exposed the misplaced priorities of the world’s systems. Jesus puts the last at the front of the line, blesses the poor, promising them his Kingdom, and offers hope to the hopeless. So what does Jesus’ Kingdom look like, and how is his Kingdom different from any other kingdom? What are the ways in which we’re called to share this hope with a hopeless world?

2-26 THE BRAIN AND GOD: ARE WE “WIRED” FOR SPIRITUALITY?
How is our brain “wired” for God? St. Augustine, who lived long before scientists knew that there were brain waves, observed that God has made us, and our hearts and minds are restless until they rest in God! What is some of the recent research by neuroscientists that enlightens our understanding of the brain and God? We will look at how these findings influence our spirituality particularly within the Catholic tradition. We will also explore how this information enhances an understanding of our own uniqueness and connectedness with others. Jesus was an outstanding brain-friendly teacher! Let’s aim at imitating the Master himself who invited us to do so!

2-27 THE PILGRIM WAY: SETTING DIRECTION FOR A FUTURE LIFE

David Whyte (bio 1-27)

Join David Whyte for an exploration of the great questions of human life through the eyes of the pilgrim: someone for whom the nature of the destination changes step by step as the end of the path approaches. One of the central themes will be internal resilience, the necessity for following a certain star not seen or perceived by anyone else, on a path keeping the journey in the world relevant and true. We will look at the necessity for hardness, for shelter, for risk, for companionship, for vulnerability, for creating a more beautiful mind and the absolute need to ask for help at transition points combined with an ability to recognize when it is being offered and the humor, humility and open hands necessary to receive it.

2-28 REINIGORATING CATHOLIC IDENTITY IN A DIGITAL CIVILIZATION

Pope Francis is calling all Catholic educators and catechists to study and implement new methodologies for faith formation in a digital civilization. New digital learning environments, brain research, collaborative learning and stimulating learning experiences demand we re-imagine how we communicate faith in the 21st century. How can we apply these new developments and insights for reinvigorating the Catholic identity of our Catholic schools and parish catechetical communities, as well as adult faith formation?

3-04 ILLUMINATING CHURCH TEACHINGS ON HOMOSEXUALITY

Homosexuality is a controversial topic within the Church and in society. Official Church teachings offer a plethora of information for lesbian and gay Catholics and their families, but it’s often misquoted or out of context. This workshop will provide an overview of Church teachings on homosexuality from the Scriptures, Catechism, papal encyclicals and pastoral letters. Attendees can expect to better understand the Church’s three primary teachings on homosexuality: 1) the dignity of the human person; 2) the Church’s opposition to discrimination and harassment; and 3) the call to chastity. Additionally, teachings to help lesbian and gay Catholics participate fully and actively in the Church will be discussed.

3-05 CRY OUT WITH JOY: CELEBRATING THE LITURGY OF THE WORD IN SONG

One of the most significant reforms of the liturgy since Vatican II has been the evolution of the importance of the Liturgy of the Word. The significance of the renewed Lectionary has become a central path for celebrating the presence of Christ in the praying assembly, and music continues to be an important force bringing the Scriptures to life. This workshop will be a musical celebration of the ritual tonality needed for the Word to be integrated in the prayer of the liturgy. Come and learn how the ritual elements are connected and take part in the singing, praying and celebrating while we examine many musical examples and options, as well as the roles of the cantor/psalmist and the choir/vocal ensemble.

3-06 THE BIBLE IS A DANGEROUS BOOK: THE RADICAL AND INCLUSIVE KINGDOM OF JESUS

Jesus’ teaching of the doctrine of the Kingdom of Heaven was an uncompromising demand for a transformative change; an utter cleansing, without and within. Jesus asks us to put him before all else – before nation, ethnic clan, family or self. It is dangerous because Jesus gives everything on our behalf and then demands the same of us. It is radical and inclusive because Jesus’ teachings defy the social, political and religious foundations of the times. What was it about Jesus and his message that led the Jewish Sanhedrin and Imperial Rome to join forces to execute him? And what does it mean to be a new creation in Christ?

Darrell Hall

Darrell Hall is former principal at St. Thomas More Collegiate in Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada, where he has taught religious education at the senior high level for 34 years. 3-07 DYING YOUNG: WHY THE YOUNG CHURCH IS FALLING AWAY AND WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT

3-09 DO YOU SEE WHAT I SEE? A CATECHIST’S PERSPECTIVE

What we see in life depends on lots of things. What is it that contributes to how we see or how we form our perspectives? What are the perceptions that we hold as catechists? It’s important to ask ourselves these questions from time to time to make sure that our answers reflect the call of Jesus in our lives. This presentation will discuss perspectives and perceptions that catechists might hold in regard to their ministry, their faith and their students, and how these perspectives and perceptions contribute to our teaching as Jesus did.

3-10 DISCOVERING THE ASSEMBLY’S VOICE: SACRED MUSIC IN THE LITURGY

According to the U.S. bishops’ document on liturgical music, “Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship”: “The musical formation of the assembly must be a continuing concern in order to foster full, conscious, and active participation” in the liturgy. This means that musical formation is not just for the choir, but for everyone. How can parishes form their assemblies so that vibrant sung participation is the norm? This session explores how to improve our singing and to be more attentive to sacred music’s role in the liturgy, so that, as the gathered body of Christ, we may to lift our voices in praise to God in the manner our Church envisions.

James Martin will teach you two simple ways to help you enter more deeply into the Old and New Testaments, enrich your spiritual life, and encounter God in Scripture. We’ll use simple methods to learn about the practices of lectio divina and Ignatian contemplation, and you will learn easy techniques of prayer that anyone can use.

3-20 DOES THE WORD OF GOD REALLY HAVE AUTHORITY IN THE CHURCH? ✨

At Vatican II, the Church affirmed the preeminent authority of the Word of God, whose servant we all are. What does this mean? Does it challenge how authority is exercised by the Church?

3-21 CULTURE, JUSTICE AND CARITAS: THE VISION OF POPES BENEDICT AND FRANCIS

This workshop will consider the interaction between modern culture and the Catholic commitment to justice and caritas through the lens of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI and Pope Francis. The Church’s ethical voice and witness are much needed in the current debates about globalization, human development and the common good, as much of this discourse has been dominated by political rather than deeper cultural concerns. At the heart of this conversation is an understanding of what it means to be made in the image and likeness of God and how this informs everything we do for justice, charity and truth in the world around us.

3-23 CRUCIFIXION: HOW A TERRIBLE FORM OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT BECAME A SYMBOL OF ABUNDANT LIFE

In Roman antiquity, death on the cross was considered as the most horrible and shameful form of capital punishment. The Gospel Passion narratives reflect the actual procedures used in the process of crucifying a condemned prisoner. Yet, because of who Jesus was and why he was led to the cross enabled the New Testament to transform this most abject form of death into a symbol of life for all humanity.

3-24 POPE FRANCIS: HOW DO WE BECOME A “CHURCH FOR THE POOR”?

In his inaugural homily, Pope Francis committed himself to “embrace with tender affection the whole of humanity, especially to the poorest, the weakest, the least important, those whom Matthew lists in the final judgment on love: the hungry, thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and those in prison.” We can do no less! Join Bishop Sylvester Ryan and a panel of educators working in solidarity with the poor in the United States and internationally, as they reflect how, as a Church community, we can be the “church for the poor” together.

3-25 INTELLECTUAL PREPARATION FOR THE NEW EVANGELIZATION: FOUR CRITICAL CHALLENGES FROM CONTEMPORARY CULTURE

A Pew Research Center study indicates that unbelief among Americans is increasing at 1 percent per year (from 25 percent to 35 percent in the last 10 years). Catholics are no exception. Much of this unbelief is attributable to three false dichotomies from popular culture: 1) faith vs. science and reason; 2) suffering vs. the love of God; and 3) virtue and morality vs. individual freedom. There is also considerable doubt surrounding the historicity and divinity of Jesus. Fr. Robert Spitzer will address resolutions to these intellectual challenges from the latest scientific, philosophical, historical, and exegetical evidence. He will also address ways they can be taught in our schools and parishes so that we can help stem the tide of unbelief.

3-26 CONFIRMATION IN A NEW TRANSLATION

Rev. Paul Turner (bio 1-21)

The Rite of Confirmation in the Catholic Church will soon be reissued with a new English translation. What should we expect? How different will the prayers sound? What can we learn by looking once more at the confirmation liturgy?

3-27 THE COMMON GOOD AND AN UN-COMMON HOPE

Jim Wallis (bio 2-24)

Ours is a shallow and selfish age and we are in need of conversion – from looking out just for ourselves to looking out for one another. It is easy to feel hopeless, that this is all there is. But how does our pursuit of the common good point us to and awaken an “uncommon hope” of the world that is to come?
4-01 MINISTERS OF HOPE AS PROPHETS AND MYSTICS

This session is a basic introduction to the social justice teachings of the Catholic Church and a reflection on how to live them in our global communities. Come learn about this 12th-century mystic and artist as we explore prayers, dances and songs based on her teachings. Experience her gift of virtues, move with the psalms that nurtured her spirit, and embody Hildegard’s spirit of viriditas as the greening of our souls. Through her vision of the Divine – “I, the fiery life of divine wisdom…” – let Hildegard lead us dancing into hope!

4-03 CAN THE NATURAL WORLD AFFORD A “JUST WAR”?*

The traditional understanding of “just war” addresses the effect of war on human beings and property. It does not include the destruction done to the natural world. This presentation will address this aspect. It will raise the question of the legitimacy of this tradition for today.

4-04 EGYPT BEHIND … GLADNESS TO FIND

The beginning of God’s people on the earth involved God moving Abraham across ancient borders. Movement to places of new hope is a theme woven into the very fabric of the biblical story. The “negro spirituals” sing over and over of crossing the Jordan as the sign of hope and an escape from despair. In this workshop, Dr. Michael Downey will chart the contours of a spirituality of migration, with attention not only to the migration of persons and peoples across many borders, but to the migration of our own weary spirits from the confines of despair to the gladness of hope.

Tom East (bio 2-05)

Participants will bask in the light of faith that is presented to us in the words of Lumen Fidei (Light of Faith), the first encyclical of Pope Francis. Practical implications will be offered for our lives, our ministries and our relationships with one another.

4-08  WILL THERE BE FAITH?
According to St. Luke’s account, toward the end of his public ministry, Jesus himself wondered if, when he’d come again, would he “find faith on earth?” This question seems all the more urgent in our postmodern times and as our societies become more secularized. This workshop says “yes, but ... ” So much depends on what faith we share and how we share it.

4-10  RECONCILIATION: THE FORGOTTEN SACRAMENT
During the first half of the 20th century, Catholics went to confession frequently, even weekly. In the second half of the last century, they had gone less and less often but still receive communion, always. What has happened? How often should a Catholic receive the sacrament of confession? Why not go straight to God?

4-12  SCANDALOUS LOVE: YOU CAN’T GET AWAY FROM A LOVE THAT WON’T LET YOU GO
Rev. Terry Hershey (bio 1-09)
In the Gospel of Luke, a woman lives in a world where she is shunned, criticized and belittled. She has felt broken, and is looking for hope, and grace, and rest. In our culture, we believe, or recite creeds. And we certainly discourage indiscriminate desire. And yet this woman finds herself by falling in love. And what are you in love with? What seizes your imagination? God, wonder, wholeheartedness, gratitude will affect everything. In the end, grace heals not by taking shame away, but by removing the one thing our shame makes us fear the most: rejection.

4-13  CREATING A CULTURE OF HOLINESS IN YOUR PARISH
Do you want to set your parish on fire? If you do, then plan to create a culture of holiness there. In this workshop, Bill Huebsch will help us imagine and plan for how a parish can launch and sustain a culture in which the call to holiness is sounded often and people are helped to respond. This would be a culture of welcome and generosity; one of self-giving love and dying to self; one of corporal and spiritual works of mercy; one in which people’s hearts are dedicated to the poor; a culture of shared faith, prayer, fasting and almsgiving – all grounded in the liturgical and catechetical life of the parish.

4-15 SIMPLICITY: A FREEDOM, A CHALLENGE AND A MANDATE FOR HUMAN SURVIVAL

Jack J. Jezreel (bio 1-11)

The modest and simple lifestyle of Pope Francis provides an occasion for the faith community to revisit the Gospel call to live simply. The words of Jesus and the testimony of the saints make clear that simplicity is an essential part of the spiritual and moral life of the Christian disciple. In addition, the 21st-century reality makes clear that simplicity is a requirement for our future survival as a species. We will look at the call to simplicity through the lenses of human fulfillment, holiness, resisting consumerism and scarcity of resources.

4-16 WHAT I HEARD IN THE CONFESSIONAL

Fr. Joe Kempf (bio 3-08)

These amazing, funny and tender moments (with no names given, of course) teach us profound and liberating truths about life outside the confessional! What makes it so hard for us to believe that we can be forgiven? Why forgive? Is there ever a time when we should NOT forgive someone else? What do I teach those entrusted to my care about offering forgiveness? Come learn and laugh with Fr. Joe Kempf as he shares what he has learned through the stories and lives of those who have passed through his confessional.

4-17 “POST-SACRAMENT” EVANGELIZATION

As we emphasize the New Evangelization, one avenue we need to explore is the call “post-sacrament” evangelization. We are quite skilled at pre-sacrament catechesis, but what happens the day after? After a wonderful confirmation liturgy, what do we have for these young people the next day? After First Communion, what contact do we maintain with those children and families? After marriage, what do we have for the newly married couples? We have terrific RCIA teams; but what concrete steps do we take to make the newly baptized become active members of our faith communities?

4-18 HOW RELIGION BOTH MAKES AND UNMAKES RACIAL PREJUDICE AND FEAR

Rev. Bryan N. Massingale, STD (bio 3-14)

It is a disturbing paradox that religious people of all faiths are among the most intolerant persons, and yet people of faith are also at the forefront of justice movements. This session explores how religion has been – and still is – used to justify injustice and exclusion, and how religious faith can also lead to a deeper commitment to human equality and justice for all.

4-19 THE PEACEFUL SOUL: MAKING THE SERENITY PRAYER A WAY OF LIFE

Fr. Jonathan Morris (bio 3-17)

4-22 THE “QUESTION BEHIND THE QUESTION”: WHAT YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS REALLY WANT TO KNOW AND HOW TO ADDRESS THEIR FEARS, HOPES AND CONCERNS

In this dynamic workshop, you’ll discover common pitfalls of attempting to answer tough questions from “tough” young people and young adults. You’ll learn skills to help you go deeper to find the “question behind the question” – the real issue, fear, longing or concern of that young person that is not evident in their initial question. You’ll discover a method of dialoguing with them to help clarify their thinking, identify their values, articulate their concerns and uncover answers to the real questions of faith and life they most deeply long to understand.

4-24 IF LOVING YOU IS WRONG, I DON'T WANT TO BE RIGHT! EXPLORING GOD'S UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

Rev. R. Tony Ricard, MTh, MDiv (bio 1-16)

Some have come to believe that they are responsible for telling God whom to love. Rather than loving unconditionally, they choose to exclude folks from the embrace of our Heavenly Father. They choose to marginalize anyone who is not like them. Somehow the poor, the weak, the immigrant and even the gay communities are not deserving of God’s love. This interactive workshop will explore God’s offer of love to those who are often cast aside by the self-righteous. In the eyes of Jesus, we should all be saying, “If loving you is wrong, I don’t want to be right!”

4-25 THE NEW EVANGELIZATION: CALLED TO BE HOLY

To be Catholic is to be called to holiness. In this call to holiness, “we realize that a great love has been offered, a good word has been spoken to us, and that when we welcome that word, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit transforms us, lights up our way to the future and enables us joyfully to advance along that way on wings of hope” (Pope Francis, Lumen Fidei). This workshop draws on Sacred Scripture and the deep spiritual treasures of our Catholic faith to outline the New Evangelization through the lens of the universal call to holiness.

4-26 AVOIDING THE “STALE AIR”: A BIBLICAL REFLECTION ON THE MISSION OF JESUS & THE ESSENTIAL OUTREACH OF THE CHURCH

Fr. Donald Senior, CP (bio 3-23)

In the first months of his papacy, Pope Francis urged Catholics, including bishops, priests, religious and lay leaders, to reach out beyond the boundaries of the Church to serve those in need. In so doing, the Pope reflects a deep spiritual dynamic found in the ministry of Jesus himself and amplified in the New Testament writings.

4-27 ECCLESIA: THE CHURCH AS A MOVEMENT

Fr. Michael White & Tom Corcoran (bios 1-25)

God created the Church to be a movement of his people and not simply the preservation of a building. In this session, we will share why it is vital we see the Church as a movement. We will also share strategies for getting your church moving – especially if it has been static.

4-28 RIDING THE DRAGON: STRENGTHENING YOUR INNER LIFE IN CHALLENGING TIMES

Dr. Robert J. Wicks (bio 1-28)

One of the greatest gifts we can share with others is a sense of our own peace. However, we can’t share what we don’t have. By discussing spiritual and psychological approaches to maintaining perspective and inner strength in challenging times, Dr. Robert Wicks, an expert on the prevention of secondary stress (the pressures experienced in reaching out to others), offers insights into how we can live in peace and, in turn, extend our warmth to others without losing our own inner fire in the process. This session will explore how small Christian communities, neighborhood ministry, family ministry, and leadership and ministering communities can transform a parish into a relational net reflective of the Reign of God.

5-07 GET THEM TO CHURCH: WAYS TO BRING CATHOLICS TO SUNDAY MASS, EVERY SUNDAY

Drawing from his book, “Bread of Life: Exploring the Presence of Eucharist in Our Lives,” and the recent Year of Sunday Mass in the Chicago Archdiocese, Fr. 5-09 THE PASTOR HAS ALL THE POWER – HOWEVER...WITHOUT THE LAITY AND LAY LEADERSHIP, THERE IS LITTLE POWER TO EXERCISE!

Rev. John C. Cusick (bio 1-04)
How often I have heard, “Father, you have some great ideas and suggestions, but in my parish, our pastor makes all the decisions and he likes the way things are”!! Sadly, too many lay leaders and parish volunteers become paralyzed by this. This workshop will offer some very practical pastoral strategies for ALL levels of parish life. They can be employed by a pastor, parish council, catechetical board, liturgy team, ministers of care, and you – to enhance our ministry. Don’t stay paralyzed!

5-10 PARISHES WORKING TOGETHER: NEW HOPE FOR THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Jesus came to set the world afire with hope. It’s difficult however to keep hope alive when parish attendance is dwindling and programs are struggling. Is your parish in competition with others? Are you losing members to neighboring parishes or vice versa? What’s growing and what’s dying? Starting with New Testament examples of inter-church action, we will share new ways of evangelizing, where parishes and vicariates or deaneries work with each other in cooperation, not competition. Come learn about the “Mission in Motion” initiative between 12 parishes. Bring your examples of evangelizing with other parishes or congregations.

5-12 GAY CATHOLIC? IDENTIFYING AS CATHOLIC BEFORE GAY

Many people have left the Church, but even more couldn’t ever even consider that. LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) people offer a model for what it means to identify as Catholic above all else. In this workshop, a panel lead by Dr. Arthur Fitzmaurice will share why they are Catholic to the end in light of Church teachings on homosexuality. In fact, we will share how homosexual identity has brought us closer to the Church and affirmed our Catholic identity.

5-13 A CHURCH AFIRE WITH HOPE

We are a Church afire with hope! But, with the Boston Marathon bombing, Syrian and other Middle East conflicts and stories of violence, we forget our baptismal call to be “ministers of peace” and to build hope in our communities. Join Fr. Bill Headley, a long-time global peacebuilder and professor at the University of San Diego’s Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies. One of the great legacies of the liturgical reforms initiated by Vatican II is the three-year Sunday and Solemnity lectionary cycle. 5-16 PILGRIM: SEEKING THE WAY

The church is specifically described as the pilgrim church, and for centuries it has pursued and sought truth, life’s meaning, sacred shelter in times of difficulty, and above all, a greater understanding of God’s presence among humankind. These quests, called pilgrimages, can be internal or physical and have their origins deeply rooted in biblical history and folklore. This concept of traveling in search of the way toward a more intimate relationship with God provides the basis of this contemplative prayer experience.

The statements of Pope Pius XII and Pope John Paul II will be reviewed on the provision of artificial hydration and nutrition to persistive vegetative state patients. “The Ethical and Religious Directive for Catholic Health Care Services” (nn. 56-61) will be highlighted as a guide to policy formation and care vs. treatment.
5-18 COLLABORATION OR COMPETITION: MASS AND SPORTS VS. MASS OR SPORTS

As resources become stretched and young people have more options with their time, should we be competing with other youth-serving agencies or start seeing them as partners in ministry? Learn how partnering with “secular” organizations can enhance your ministry. Using newly established principles for cooperative partnerships (from the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry) as a framework, Bob McCarty and Vikki Shepp will walk you through a process for partnering that will allow collaboration, maintain Catholic identity and capture young people’s interest. Though aimed at youth ministry, these principles can easily be applied to other parish ministries.

Timothy Radcliffe, OP (bio 3-20)

5-20 ATTUNING OURSELVES TO THE FIRE, THE HEARTBEAT OF CHRIST: EXPLORING A RICH MYSTICAL IMAGE

Fr. Ronald Rohheiser (bio 1-17)
How do we listen to Christ’s heartbeat? What are the signs that we are listening? What is then asked of us? The Gospel of John presents discipleship in precisely those categories. How do we become “the beloved disciple” who hears Christ’s heartbeat? This presentation will try to unpack John’s mystical description of discipleship. As Evagrius of Pontus, the fourth century ascetic monk, puts it: “Breast of the Lord, Kingdom of God: Who rests against it, a theologian shall be.

5-23 YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY: 10 WAYS TO ENGAGE, EMPOWER AND IGNITE THE FAITH OF YOUNG ADULTS

Ministry to young adults is complex, challenging but extremely rewarding. In our parishes, we often meet young adults at the most joyful and hope-filled moments of their life – when they get engaged, married, at baptism and when they seek out faith formation for their children. But our young adult efforts often do not keep pace with where young adults are at and what they are searching for. This workshop will give participants 10 practical and effective ways to engage, empower and ignite the faith of our young adults so that they will “set the world ablaze,” in the words of Catherine of Siena.

5-24 “I WILL PROVE MY HOLINESS THROUGH YOU...” (EZ. 36:23-26)

Sr. Maureen Sullivan (bio 2-23)

We are meant to be manifestations of God’s holiness. For many of us baptized so early in our Christian journey, there comes a time when we must come to understand what baptism means and consciously accept the offer of grace made to us so many years ago. Baptism is the embrace of God who first loved us. Have we truly accepted that embrace? Does our daily life attest to that acceptance? Our earthly journey is to become “morally” what we already are by virtue of our baptism. Only then can we begin to embody God’s claim to us offered in the words of the prophet Ezekiel. Benedict XVI’s Year of Faith has concluded ... might the fire of renewal follow?

5-25 AMERICAN ISLAM

Jihad Mohammed Turk (bio 2-25)

5-26 DEVELOPING THE GIFT OF FAITH

Jean Marie Weber (bio 2-26)

Faith is a gift! This workshop will focus on the recognition of the gift of faith and our response. We will pursue such questions as: What does an active faith life look like? Who assists in the process of developing this life? And how can one consciously help to develop the gift of faith in oneself and others? Come and explore!

5-27 SACRAMENTAL IMAGINATION AND FAITH FORMATION

Sr. Angela Zukowski, MHSH, DMin (bio 2-28)

What is “sacramental imagination”? Why should catechists and Catholic schoolteachers be concerned with cultivating the sacramental imagination of those to whom we proclaim the Good News? Our ability to imagine is a great resource in cultivating a deeper appreciation of the Holy Spirit which surrounds us. In a digital world that clutters our time, attention and imagination with a diversity of distractions, we are discovering a loss of appreciation of mystery, wonder and beauty. This workshop explores ways to re-capture a sense of sacramental imagination for embracing a living faith, as Pope Francis invites us today!

5-70 Không thể hy vọng vững vàng nếu không có Đức Tín

Để tài nhằm mình chúng rạng Hy Vọng là điều thật cần thiết, nhất là trong bối cảnh xã hội hôm nay, để con người và nhất là kitô hữu có thể sống và song đó dạy. Đồng thời, niềm Hy Vọng đúng đắn phải gắn liền với Đức Tín như là nền tảng. Chính trong đức tin vững vàng và sống động, người kitô hữu tổ luôn mất rạng rỡ niềm hy vọng.

ONE CAN’T REALLY HOPE WITHOUT FAITH

The Congress theme emphasizes that hope is vital, especially in our social context, so that everyone, particularly Christians, can live abundantly. 6-01 IMAGINING GOD IN A SCIENTIFIC AGE
dr. richard gaillardetz (bio 1-07)

Too often Christianity is belittled as an intellectually bankrupt religion that, under the scrutiny of modern science, no longer can offer a credible account of God and God’s activity in the world. In this workshop, we will explore our own customary forms of imagining God and will consider how our great theological tradition can enrich our religious imaginations and offer a compelling account of God that can respond to the challenges of a scientific world.

6-02 ANSWER THE CALL: RITUAL CREATING DISCIPLESHIP
tom kendzia

Our ritual experiences have the power that can open the eyes of our hearts to become the living light of Christ. Music, wed to ritual action, makes this happen in a profound way, especially when we are called into one voice by the sheer act of communal song. Sacramental celebrations can’t do this on their own, but must be followed by ongoing, weekly opportunities for conversion. Come and explore sung ritual experience that can “set the world afire.”

6-03 “SPIRITUAL BUT NOT RELIGIOUS” ADULTS AND YOUNG ADULTS BELONG HERE
douglas leal

There’s a lot of eye-rolling and hand-wringing in church circles whenever the subject of “spiritual but not religious” adults and young adults comes up. But the good news is that these people are already interested in the spiritual life! And the spiritual traditions of the church are the perfect home for them; we just need to start the conversation! In this workshop, we’ll examine current trends in spirituality and their impact on outreach, evangelization and formation. We will also identify practical strategies for meeting these seekers (hint: they’re already in our midst), and ways to evangelize, especially with young adults.

6-04 HOLDING TO BELIEF IN AN UNBELIEVING WORLD

It is hard to underestimate the impact that the new atheists have had on many Christian believers and young Catholics too. What challenges are our detractors giving us? What are our responses? Through story, media and humor, we will explore how we can best witness to faith in a sometimes hostile world.

6-07 THE PASCHAL MYSTERY IN DAILY LIFE

The Paschal Mystery of Christ’s death and Resurrection is meant to be the pattern of our spirituality and our daily living. Thus, as St. Paul instructs us, “you must consider yourselves dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus” (Romans 6:11). Similarly, in the Memorial Acclamation of the Eucharist, we proclaim, “Save us, Savior of the world, for by your cross and Resurrection, you have set us free” (option C). This presentation will reflect on some of the ways the Eucharist can transform our daily lives and enable us to live more fully the Paschal Mystery we celebrate.

6-09 ARE YOU CERTIFIABLE? EXPLORING NATIONAL LAY ECCLESIAL MINISTRY CERTIFICATION: THE OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

Why would a Lay Ecclesial Minister (LEM) seek national certification? How does it benefit the LEM, their local faith community, and the larger Church? These are two important questions that will be answered in this workshop, as well as what qualifications are required and how to apply. Dr. Charlotte McCorquodale will help those attending explore the benefits and challenges of national certification, as well as review the various elements of the national process. 6-10 INSPIRING YOUTH TO MISSION AND SOLIDARITY

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) invites you to a panel presentation and discussion designed to inspire. 6-11 WHAT IS HOPE BUT COURAGE WILLEDSHARED!

Dr. Megan McKenna (bio 3-16)

We are told by Jesus: Do not be afraid! We are to live in the light, live in hope, standing with the Son of Man, and together be a blessing upon all and upon the earth. Where we stand, how we stand and with whom we stand is the stance of hope. How we share each other’s burdens reveals the depth of our hope. Come, dream visions of such clear light.

6-12 “FOR YOU WERE ONCE ALIENS!” (EX. 22:20): THE BIBLE ON IMMIGRANTS

Fr. J. Patrick Mullen, PhD (bio 2-16)

America, once a land of opportunity welcoming the “huddled masses yearning to breathe free,” has reconsidered itself as a place of open immigration ... but not without controversy. Good people line up on both sides of this hot topic. This workshop will investigate the biblical starting points and values, expanding the conversation beyond economic and legal considerations, to a Divine perspective on the outsider and the undocumented. Bring your Bible.

6-13 HOLD EACH OTHER – FOR GOD’S SAKE: AN AFFIRMATION OF THE GIFT OF SEXUALITY

Just before he died, Jesus said, “Into your hands I commend my spirit.” Another way to hear that: “Daddy, please hold me.” This plea, this need, this impulse, to hold and be held is at the core of sexuality. Jesus was good at this, good at sexuality. And like in all things, he invites us into this mystery with him, in the hope that, through the good use of this God-given gift of sexuality, all human beings might live more abundantly, more freely. This workshop will challenge you to be held when needed and to hold each other better.

6-14 T.H.I.N.K.: FIVE WAYS TO DEAL WITH THE MEDIA IN YOUR (CHILD’S) LIFE

Entertainment media and consumerism are everywhere today. Advertising wants to sell us “family” values that have nothing to do with the Gospel. We wonder if media – from the movies to the news – is trying to inform us or entertain us. Violence as a way to solve problems is the dominant theme. Sr. Rose Pacatte will use T.H.I.N.K. as a framework that catechists and parents can use with students to engage popular culture through the lens of faith.

6-16 POPE FRANCIS? WHAT DOES HE MEAN FOR THE CHURCH?

Pope Francis has been a happy surprise for most Catholics. What will his papacy mean for the church? What are his views on the important issues facing the church? Where does he want to lead the church? Will he be a reforming pope? Will he make a difference?

6-17 SIGNS OF GOD’S GRACE: THE SACRAMENTS

Thomas J. Scirghi, SJ, ThD (bio 1-18)

Our sacramental celebration is “primary theology,” for it is in church that we receive our first lesson in the study of God. The Christian sacraments are rooted in the teaching and ministry of Jesus Christ. This session will explore the origin of the sacraments through their scriptural foundation and their development through the history of the church. We will also explore the rituals of the church, for sacraments are designed to be celebrated.
6-18 THE PASTORAL COUNCIL: BUILDING A LIVING, HOPE-FILLED COMMUNITY, NOT A CORPORATE BODY OF MANAGEMENT

Bro. Loughlan Sotfield (bio 2-22)

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops describes the purpose of the pastoral council: “to build the parish as a living Christian community.” This workshop will explore ways to structure the council in such a way that it helps to build a parish that is hope-filled, life-filled and life-giving. The material presented is based on Bro. Loughlan Sotfield’s experience of working with councils on a number of different continents.

6-19 HAPPINESS, SUFFERING AND THE LOVE OF GOD: WHY WOULD AN ALL-LOVING GOD ALLOW SUFFERING?

Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, SJ, PhD (bio 3-25)

One of the most difficult intellectual challenges Catholics must face today is why an all-loving God would allow suffering. Inability to explain suffering not only leads to unbelief, but wasted pain and an embittered spirit. Fr. Robert Spitzer will discuss a proven, four-step method for helping people in our schools, colleges and parishes to resolve this quandary properly: 1) developing a contributive and transcendent view of happiness and purpose in life; 2) presenting evidence of a soul and eternal life; 3) explaining why God would allow people and nature to cause suffering; and 4) showing how we can suffer well – with deep benefit toward an eternal life of unconditional love with the Lord.

6-20 THE ABCs OF FAITH FORMATION WITH YOUTH

When we gather young people together, are we playing games, hoping to survive, or intentionally forming disciples? What’s the secret to staying faithful to our catechetical calling of echoing the faith while leading teens down the road of discipleship? Come and (actively) learn the ABCs of faith formation designed to help you engage young people’s heads, hearts and hands.

6-21 SACRAMENTS FOR OLDER CHILDREN: PRACTICAL IDEAS TO ADDRESS THE NEED

There are many children in our parishes who have reached the age of reason (7 years or older) without receiving one or all of their primary sacraments. For some, it may be appropriate to start an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process adapted for children. For the other children who have already been baptized and need First Eucharist and Reconciliation, we have to design a catch-up process. The goal of this workshop is to provide helpful ideas and practical ways to address that need. The importance of bringing parents into the process in an intentional manner will also be discussed.

6-22 HIV PREVENTION BASED ON THE DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON: EFFECTIVE AND FAITHFUL RESPONSES

Msgr. Robert J. Vitillo (bio 1-22)

The Catholic Church is often scapegoated, by media and by public health officials, as an obstacle to effective HIV prevention. This workshop will examine scientific facts and strategies as well as Church teachings on HIV prevention. Examples of successful prevention efforts undertaken by Catholic Church-inspired organizations will be presented, including those that promote risk-avoidance rather than mere risk-reduction behavior changes and other holistic interventions that are respectful of the dignity of the human person.

6-23 SETTING YOUR CHOIR ON FIRE!

6-24 PARENTING TEENS & SURVIVING WITH GRACE!

Char Wenc, MEd (bio 1-24)

Our job as parents is indeed challenging at times. It is difficult to be consistent in our decisions. However, it is one of the greatest gifts we give our teens. If we are “wishy-washy,” we give our teens no foundation upon which to make their decisions. Our limits give our children the security and boundaries that they so need in this world! In this workshop, Char Wenc will give a wide range of techniques and skills to say “NO” with respect and love. It takes courage. This session is high energy, humorous and practical. Its goal is to empower and encourage parents through their parenting of a teens’ journey.
6-25 FANNING A SMALL FLAME INTO A MIGHTY FIRE

Sometimes our hope and enthusiasm can be smothered by anxiety and tiredness. Unintentionally and unconsciously, we lose hope and replace our confidence with self-doubt. In a recent synod in Rome, the bishops called for a New Evangelization, an experience they say that must begin with us, a sometimes “weary” Church. Is it time to fan the flame we carry into a new fire, a fire the world will recognize? Like St. Paul challenging Timothy, it may be that we too are entering a new era, a season to “fan into flame the gifts God has given us.” In this session, we will explore how a New Evangelization will help us to invigorate our Catholic confidence and renew our hope for a world aflame.

7-09 RENEWING OUR PASSION: THE CHURCH

Dr. Greer G. Gordon (bio 1-08)

The tragic scandals of the last several years have left many believers heartbroken and confused. This session will address the mission and identity of the Body of Christ: the Church.

7-10 DO NOT BE AFRAID, I AM WITH YOU

Most people would agree that the ministry of music has been a source of comfort, healing and hope for all who struggle in the midst of the terror of life. The celebration of the Eucharist and the sacraments of penance and anointing are at the center of our ritual expressions of our walk with suffering and the promise of hope found in Christ. This session will be a musical journey examining, singing and praying hymns, psalms and inspired songs that can become a source of healing and restoration, deepening the prayer and the walk of faith for the entire Body of Christ. Come sing, pray and let the music take us to a place of transformation.

As 2014 is Year A of the Lectionary cycle, this workshop will focus on the parables of Matthew’s Gospel. Why are some of them so fiery, violent and challenging? What are Jesus and Matthew trying to teach us in these stories?

He also maintains a large internationally recognized website of “Catholic resources.”

7-14 MOTIVATOR, MODEL, MINISTER…CATECHIST, WHO DO YOU SAY YOU ARE?

Dr. Saundra Kennedy (bio 3-09)
As Jesus asked the Apostles, “Who do you say that I am?” he also asks the same of us. Who do we say that Jesus is? And the question we must ask of ourselves is, “Who do we say that we are as his disciples?” The way we answer that question helps define who we are as believers, as Christians, as evangelizers, as people of faith. It determines how we identify ourselves as teachers, as catechists. In this session, the role of catechist as motivator, role model and minister will be discussed in light of Jesus’ call to catechetical ministry.

7-17 WHO IS JESUS?

James Martin, SJ (bio 3-13)
Jesus Christ will always be a mystery to us. And yet, we are called into a relationship with him. The two traditional ways of approaching Jesus – learning about the “Jesus of history” (that is, the man who walked the landscape of first-century Palestine); and praying with the “Christ of faith, the Resurrected One” – are often seen as in opposition. But they are not! Understanding more about the historical Jesus helps us understand the Risen One. Fr. James Martin, who is at work on a new book on Jesus, will introduce you again to the most important person in our lives.

7-19 GOOD CHURCH: A TREACHEROUS ADVENTURE

Dr. Terry Nelson-Johnson (bio 6-13)

The psychotherapist Alfred Adler said: “The chief danger in life is that you may take too many precautions.” Pope Francis said: “I prefer a thousand times over a Church of accidents than a sick Church.” And Jesus challenged: “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross.” These are calls for risk-taking, for experiences of Church that are bold, daring, demanding, surprising, delightful and ultimately reckless. Church should be a treacherous adventure! And if it were, imagine how many young people might get involved. What would that look like? What would that feel like? Come find out.

7-20 POPE FRANCIS: WHAT DOES HE MEAN FOR THE WORLD?

Thomas J. Reese, SJ (bio 6-16)

Pope Francis is not only the leader of the Catholic Church, he is also a world leader. What impact will his papacy have on the world? What are his views on politics, economics, justice, the environment and interreligious relations? Will he make a difference?

By sharing and reflecting on these service experiences, youth also grow in their understanding of spirituality and strengthen their commitment to live out Gospel values. Come hear some of the stories and experiences of younger adolescents who have set the “world afire.”

What skills are needed to move from being multicultural-parallel communities into intercultural communities that enrich and enliven each other’s faith and spiritual journey? What stands in the way of our truly inviting and nurturing the diverse gifts of our members so that they can truly become the authentic ministerial leaders that they are called to be. Through story, dialogue, prayer and various multimedia resources, this workshop will address our intercultural reality in ministry and offer suggestions for forming leaders who are attentive to our diverse Church communities.

7-70 Kitô hưu, chung nhận của niềm hy vọng

Most Rev. Joseph Nguyen Tan Tuoc (buhay 5-70)

Hy Vọng đích thực cũng cần liên kết với Đức Mến để có thể tỏa sáng và suốt âm cuộc đời. Kitô hưu, dù là giáo dân, tu sĩ hay giáo sĩ, không chỉ là người có niềm hy vọng, mà còn phải là chung nhận của niềm hy vọng, nghĩa là phải “sẵn sàng trả lời cho người khác lý do của niềm hy vọng” (1 Pr 3, 15) trong chính cuộc sống cụ thể của mình. Đó là góp phần hấp tấp niềm hy vọng cho thế giới.

CHRISTIANS: THE WITNESS OF HOPE

Most Rev. Joseph Nguyen Tan Tuoc (bio 5-70)

It is true that genuine hope is always tied to charity so that it may shine on and warm our lives. To be a Christian, no matter lay or religious, is not only to be a person full of hope, but also a witness of hope. In our present life, one has to “always have your answer ready for people who ask you the reason for the hope that you have” (1 Pt 3:15). By doing so, one contributes to illuminate hope for this world. (Session presented in Vietnamese.)

Andrew Chinn (bio 3-02)

Not only is music a source of great joy for children and for us all, it is also a great way to learn about our story, our Scripture and our faith. Join Australian Andrew Chinn on a journey through the Bible, from Genesis to the Prophets, from the Psalms and the Gospels to the letters of St. Paul. 8-03 JOURNEY OF THE HEART – TURAS AN CHROI
Music, meditation and sound can take us closer to what language cannot reach. It is a journey into stillness, mystery and our own creativity. This workshop is an invitation to experience the healing power of prayer, music and meditation, calling us into relationship with ourselves, to others and the seasons of our own heart. Celtic spirituality becomes the well source as we explore the healing potential of these disciplines in relation to the depth and beauty of the heart’s journey through darkness and light.

Chinnéide divides her time between the Aran Islands and the mainland, offering retreats, workshops and performances of spiritual music.

8-04 THE RAGING FLAME OF MISSIONARY HOPE: A WITNESS OF WITHNESS
Fr. Ken Deasy
The original missionaries of our Church were people who were “with Christ” and “sent out by Christ”; giving witness of their first-hand experience of being with Jesus (with-ness). Fr. Ken Deasy will give witness of Christ’s withness among the persons and ministries of our foreign missionary men, women and families. In bringing the flame of hope to the world – to the slums of Bangkok, Thailand; to the deaf and mute children of Haiti; to the massive outstation missions in the jungles of Kenya; to a desperate people cut off from life resources in South Sudan – do we give witness of God’s withness as we catechize and evangelize here at home?

8-05 DEALING WITH THE LEGACY OF PAST CONFLICT
Fr. Gary Donegan, CP & Brian McKee (bios 5-11)

The north of Ireland has been presented as a model for peacemaking. However, the absence of violence does not mean the presence of peace. More “peace walls” have been built in Belfast since the formal end of “The Troubles,” and conflict still erupts on a regular basis. The experience of conflict inflicts deep hurt and creates a legacy that must be addressed before peace can be countenanced. This workshop explores practical steps toward restoring trust between communities divided by generations of suspicion and hatred. (This workshop builds upon Session 5-09.)

8-06 IS YOUR HIDDEN SELF GROWING STRONG? THE PATH TOWARD DEEPER WHOLENESS
Sr. Fran Ferder & Fr. John Heagle (bios 2-06)

The Gospel offers us an invitation to live a transformed life – to discover, expand and deepen our “hidden self” (Ephesians 3:17). Essentially, this means to “grow stronger” in all of the places of our lives where we struggle, where we question, where we feel unfinished. This includes those parts of us that are still wounded or not directed toward wholeness. In this session, we will use insights from Scripture and human development to explore the sacred path that leads toward wholeness – and the ultimate, loving leap into self-transcendence and love.
8-07 S.O.A.P.: THE IMPORTANCE OF SPIRITUALITY IN HEALING HUMAN TRAFFICKING SURVIVORS

Theresa L. Flores, LSW, MS (bio 1-05)

Learn how we all can be God’s shepherds and search for his missing sheep. There are 1.3 million missing and runaway youth in the United States, and human trafficking is the second leading violent crime in the country. This is the social justice issue of our day. Learn how the SOAP (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution) Ministry was created by survivor Theresa Flores and how a simple, tiny bar of soap with a phone number is rescuing human trafficking victims all across the country. Also hear her recommendations for incorporating prayer, hope and love in the process and how spirituality plays a key role in the healing of victims.

8-08 LIVING WATER: LESSONS FROM THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

Amy Florian (bio 2-07)

Do you constantly realize how imperfect you are? Do you get tired, depleted and discouraged? You want to push ahead on your faith journey and be better able to minister to others, but how do you get the renewal, sustenance, inspiration and joy required to do that in the midst of a world where there is too little time and too much judgment and criticism? Come for a power-packed session to explore lessons from the Woman at the Well, and then hear the woman’s version of the story as you’ve never heard it before. Come away changed.

8-09 A GLIMPSE INTO THE HEART OF GOD: SEEING INTO THE DARKNESS OF SUFFERING AND EVIL

Darrell Hall (bio 3-06)

Suffering and evil are spoken of throughout Scriptures. However, Jesus never offered a philosophical or theoretical explanation to any of the suffering he encountered. Instead, he asked us to trust in God. But the issue of suffering and evil still remains. How do we balance God’s goodness and omnipotence with the existence of suffering and evil? Can God create a free world with free creatures with no evil? Is it possible that suffering and evil help to create a morally good world? Perhaps the “why me?” question is the wrong question. If so, what is the right question? The answers are found in examining God’s objectives in Creation and in Jesus’ ministry.

8-11 PREPARING FOR THE NEW ORDER OF CELEBRATING MARRIAGE

Fr. Jan Michael Joncas (bio 5-14)

In 1991, the second edition of the Ordo Celebrandi Matrimonium was promulgated, but due to many factors, vernacular translations of this new rite for celebrating marriage have taken many years to appear. Explore the content of the new rites in preparation for their pending official approval for use in English in the dioceses of the United States. Proposed music for these new rites will be part of the workshop.

8-12 WHAT CHILDREN GIVE TO PARENTS

Dr. Christopher Kaczor

Firstly, children are a realization of the drive of erotic love toward unity. Children manifest that unity and give rise to that unity on a physical, social and emotional level. Secondly, children aid parents in developing a friendship of virtue by eliciting from the parents repeated good actions that which build up the character of husband and wife. Thirdly, children help their parents to get to heaven by facilitating the parents’ obedience to the commandments. How wise of the Second Vatican Council to teach, “Children are really the supreme gift of marriage and contribute in the highest degree to their parents’ welfare” (Gaudium et Spes, 50).

Roy Petitﬁls, MS, LPC

Have you ever had a class, group or young person you secretly dreaded to work with or teach? Do you ever feel like you’re wasting your time because you’re not getting through to them? What if you could actually look forward to working with the “toughest,” most apathetic youth? In this dynamic and humorous workshop, you’ll discover the real reasons young people hit the snooze button in Church, recognize different levels of human resistance, and acquire a new set of tools you can begin using immediately to effectively reach youth and even enjoy working with hard-to-reach youth.

8-16 LET’S SING OUR FAITH AT WEDDINGS, FUNERALS AND QUINCEÁÑERAS

In this workshop, we will focus on the songs that are used to accompany the celebration of sacraments and of the various rites that assist us in helping the community to express their faith during these important moments in life. We will review the documents tied to these ritual celebrations and will introduce songs to add to your community’s repertoire.

8-17 I CAN’T TELL ‘EM THAT! USE OF DIRECT INSTRUCTION IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Richard M. Rymarz

Several recent studies have pointed out that, in a number of situations, direct instruction has a place in contemporary pedagogy. Many of these insights dovetail with established theoretical approaches such as utilizing psychologist Lev Vygotsky’s zone of proximal development. This workshop will explore some of the principles behind how direct instruction can be used effectively in the religious education classroom – these include reducing cognitive load, signposting and scaffolding of learning.

8-18 THEOLOGY OF THE BODY AND CHASTITY EDUCATION

Sr. Kieran Sawyer, SSND

Over his long papacy, Pope John Paul II gave the Church a vast theological system intended to guide our understanding of sexual love. This system has come to be called the “theology of the body.” In 2008 the U.S. bishops issued the document “Catechetical Formation in Chaste Living,” which tells us how to apply Pope John Paul’s teachings to the chastity education of our children. In this workshop, Sr. Kieran Sawyer will show how to apply the core teachings of these important documents in the parish or school curriculum. She will also show how a comprehensive chastity education program provides a necessary context for teaching the mandatory safe environment sessions.

She is a columnist for Cornerstone Media’s Top Music Countdown online resource and host of their audio show, “Burning Issues,” which deals with relevant youth topics. Scally has made over 2,300 public presentations at youth rallies, training events, retreats and adult education days as well as major conferences for religious educators in North America.

8-20 RAISING THE ROOF: MAKING ROOM FOR ALL GOD’S CHILDREN

Christine & Michael Way Skinner (bios 2-21)

In Mark’s Gospel, we are told of the story of how a group of people opened up the roof of the house where Jesus was teaching to gain access for their friend who was paralyzed. This session will focus on the vision to which we are called – toward full inclusion of all of God’s people no matter what their level of cognitive, social or physical ability. It will include practical strategies for how to do this in parish ministry, liturgy, catechetical programs and sacramental preparation.

8-21 JESUS THE PROPHET? INSIGHTS FROM READING JESUS WITH THE OLD TESTAMENT PROPHETS

Prof. Daniel Smith-Christopher (bio 1-19)

The Christian tradition has tended, in both Catholic and Protestant traditions, to place a great deal of emphasis on the identity of Jesus. But what if we also want to talk about the teachings of Jesus, and even the human example of Jesus, especially in relation to the Hebrew tradition? We will see in this session that reading Jesus in relation to the Old Testament prophets raises some fascinating, and quite challenging, insights into the Gospels and their portrait of Jesus as not only Redeemer and Lord, but also among the most radical prophets! What would it mean to modern Christian faith to take Jesus seriously as Prophet?

8-22 AT THE HEART OF ADULT FAITH FORMATION: DISCIPLESHIP AND HOSPITALITY

Julianne Stanz (bio 5-23)

St. Patrick has been often called the “model of discipleship,” while St. Brigid has been called the “model of hospitality.” Discipleship and hospitality lie at the heart of the New Evangelization, and Julianne Stanz will share insights from the lives of these spiritual giants that has tremendous value for our respective ministries. In the words of Pope Francis, “With your daily service, you are the hands of God who satisfies the hunger of every living thing.” Particularly suited for those working in adult faith formation, this session will explore practical ways to form intentional disciples at the parish level so that we can satisfy the hunger of those whom we serve through the lens of hospitality and discipleship.

8-23 FOR YOUR EYES ONLY: THE TOP SECRETS TO SUCCESSFUL EVENT PLANNING

Michael Theisen (bio 6-20)

Have you been given the responsibility of organizing a large event be it a retreat, a mission trip, concert or regional or diocesan event? Do you often contemplate a job as a travel agent given all of the trips you’ve organized? Most of us in ministry have some large event we become responsible for planning and most of us have learned the hard way about the difficulties in navigating the logistical mine fields we encounter during the planning process. Come and learn, laugh and share your own wisdom as together we reveal the secrets to successful event planning that will help transform an “Events ‘R’ Us” mindset into moments for evangelization and discipleship!

8-24 LEARN HOW TO USE THE RCIA TO TRAIN FOR CHRISTIAN LIFE

Nick Wagner

Nick Wagner is co-founder and Director of TeamRCIA.com, a free online resource for Catholic parishes. He has more than 25 years’ experience as a leader and trainer in liturgical and catechetical ministries, serving as a diocesan director of worship and a parish liturgist. For 20 years Wagner was an active team member with the North American Forum on the Catechumenate and speaks at national, diocesan and parish training events. He is author of many publications, including “The Heart of Faith.”

The General Directory for Catechesis says the baptismal catechumenate is the model for all catechesis. How do we make that happen? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) compels us to shift our understanding of catechesis out of education and into training for Christian living. In this information-packed workshop, we will discuss why it is important to understand the deep structure of the RCIA as a model for all catechesis, what we mean by “training” vs. “education,” how we adapt the RCIA for more effective catechesis in all of Christian life, and what would happen if we really shifted to a “catechumenate model” for all of Christian formation.

8-25 “GO, AND ANNOUNCE THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD”: SET THE WORLD AFIRE

David Wells (bio 6-25)

At the end of Mass, we are commissioned to “go, announce the Gospel of the Lord.” According to the teaching of the Church, we gather together with that as our purpose. Our Church exists to evangelize. Following the Synod of 2012, the Church is in preparation for a New Evangelization. Based upon the documents of that synod and recent homilies from Pope Francis, we will explore what is new about a “New” Evangelization, and consider together what it might mean for us, our families and for our ministry. With a focus upon the challenging and untidy circumstances of our daily life, let us be renewed in our energy and conviction for the task of evangelization and so together, hope for a world afire.

TEMA DE REFLEXIÓN

Esperanza que enciende al mundo fluye de las lecturas de la Palabra proclamada en el segundo Domingo de Cuaresma. Esperanza enraizada en gracia y bondad brilla en el rostro de Jesús. Mientras reflexionamos en el momento de la transfiguración, también nosotros nos sentimos transportados a esa increíble experiencia. En presencia de lo Sagrado, nos sentimos estrellas brillantes de esperanza.

Nuestra experiencia no es siempre de luz, pero siempre puede ser de esperanza. Maya Angeleu sugiere que “Dios pone arco iris en las nubes para que cada uno de nosotros en nuestra propia oscuridad y más temibles momentos pueda ver la posibilidad de la esperanza.” Creer en la luz aun en nuestros momentos de oscuridad y saber que el fruto de la esperanza es valentía, audacia, compromiso para encender el fuego de la esperanza extendiéndonos hacia las personas pobres, frágiles y hambrientas de alimento espiritual.

UN MENSAJE DEL ARZOBISPO

Estimados Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,
¡Bienvenidos al Congreso de Educación Religiosa 2014 de la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles!
El tema que nos une este año, “Esperanza que enciende al mundo,” es una hermosa invitación a cada uno de nosotros. Cuanto más crezcamos en la virtud teologal de la esperanza, más podremos encender al mundo, más podremos transformarlo en un lugar mejor, lleno de amor, paz, justicia y respeto para todos.
Para poder hacer esto, es necesario que recordemos siempre a qué tipo de esperanza nos referimos. El Papa Francisco lo explicó muy bien:
“La esperanza no es optimismo. La esperanza es un don, es un regalo del Espíritu Santo. San Pablo nos dice que la esperanza tiene un nombre. La esperanza es Jesús. Si no dices: ‘Tengo esperanza en Jesús, en Jesucristo, persona viva, que ahora viene en la Eucaristía, que está presente con su Palabra,’ esa no es esperanza. Será buen humor, optimismo...
“El Señor que es la esperanza de la gloria, que es el centro, que es la totalidad, nos ayude en este camino: dar esperanza, tener pasión por la esperanza.”
Rezo para que estos días de formación, compartir, oración y adoración sean una excelente oportunidad para que crezcamos en conocimiento y comprensión de nuestra fe Católica, así como en amor y devoción al Señor Jesús, a quien servimos con nuestra vida, en nuestro trabajo, nuestro ministerio, nuestra vida pública y familiar.
Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente durante este fin de semana y siempre.
Sinceramente en Cristo,
+ José H. Gomez
Arzobispo de Los Ángeles

SALUDO DE LA DIRECTORA

Estimados Amigos,
Siempre es de gran gozo extender una calurosa bienvenida a nuestro muy animado Congreso de Educación Religiosa. Este increíble fin de semana ofrece un gran número de oportunidades para recargar nuestras vidas, para llenarnos de recursos y para enriquecer nuestros ministerios.
El tema de este año, “Esperanza que Enciende al Mundo,” fluye de la historia de la transfiguración proclamada durante el segundo Domingo de Cuaresma. Esta es la Esperanza enraizada en la bondad que brilla radiantemente en el rostro de Jesús. Sabiendo que el fruto de la esperanza es la valentía, nos comprometemos a encender el fuego de la esperanza y hacer arder al mundo con el evangelio y con nuestro compromiso al ministerio catequético.
La variedad de talleres y charlas presentadas durante el fin de semana son valiosos recursos de formación y enriquecimiento para ustedes y para sus comunidades de fe. La oportunidad de escuchar y de renovarse por la sabiduría ofrecida por los conferencistas nacionales e internacionales es un verdadero don y una bendición.
Seguramente que nuestros espíritus serán elevados por las celebraciones litúrgicas, el entretenimiento y las experiencias multiculturales. En medio de tanta actividad también se ofrece la oportunidad de pasar tiempo en oración en el “lugar sagrado” apto para la contemplación, caminar el laberinto o hacer uso del sacramento de la reconciliación.
Gracias a todos por su liderazgo maravilloso y su fiel dedicación por compartir la Buena Nueva. Espero acogerlos en este evento lleno de espíritu.
Atentamente,

2-54 JESÚS NOS SANA: TALLER DE SANACIÓN POR MEDIO DE LA ORACIÓN Y EL CANTO

2-55 NECESIDAD DE INCULTURAR EL EVANGELIO Y LA IGLESIA

El Pueblo de Dios se formó con 12 pueblos (tribus de Israel). Cada pueblo tuvo su territorio, su patriarca y hasta una manera propia de llamar a Dios cuyos nombres aparecen en los textos del Antiguo Testamento. Aunque en el pozo de Siquem todos los pueblos habían acordado que ya no usaran esos nombres sino el de Yahvé, a Dios lo siguieron llamando según su tradición histórica, cultural y religiosa y a Yahvé lo dejaron como el In-nombrable. Esto fue debido a la absoluta necesidad de que la experiencia religiosa debe responder a la historia y tradiciones de los pueblos y no precisamente a una intención teológica por más acertada que ésta sea. En su predicación Pablo nunca usa el nombre de Yahvé. El griego era el idioma y la cultura dominantes; por lo tanto, para evangelizar, él usa el nombre con el que tradicionalmente esos pueblos llamaban a Dios, Theós. Así también nosotros debemos hacer hoy con nuestra predicación si queremos seguir el camino y el método que tenemos en la Palabra de Dios.

Pbro. Clodomiro Siller Acuña

2-56 LOS SACRAMENTOS CON ADOLESCENTES: IDEAS PRÁCTICAS PARA IMPLEMENTAR

Hay muchos niños en nuestras parroquias que han llegado a ser adolescentes sin recibir sus primeros sacramentos. Para algunos de esos niños el proceso más adecuado es el RICA adaptado para niños. Para un gran número de esos niños que ya están bautizados y solos necesitan la primera comunión y la reconciliación tenemos que hacer un proceso para rectificar la situación. La meta de esta conferencia es de dar ideas prácticas para implementación en nuestras parroquias. Los componentes esenciales de ese proceso serán elaborados, por ejemplo, los temas principales que se deben usar e ideas para incluir a los padres de familia en un modo satisfactorio para todos.

2-57 BAILANDO EN EL MISTERIO DE LA NUEVA EVANGELIZACIÓN

La historia de la evangelización y la catequesis nos invita a imaginar el hermoso misterio del arte de Dios como el artista del baile de esta nueva llamada a evangelizar y catequizar colaborando con el ejemplo de nuestra vida cristiana en áreas cruciales. ¿Cuáles son esas áreas? La familia es una de las más importantes. Como líderes, tenemos el deber de dar especial atención a los padres de familia. Para encontrar a Dios, la familia y la Iglesia son compañeros de esta nueva aventura de la “Nueva Evangelización.” En la sesión nos enfocaremos en ideas técnicas creativas para ser usadas inmediatamente en las familias que ustedes evangelizan y catequizan. Basándonos en los documentos de “El Anuncio del Evangelio de Hoy,” Directorio Nacional de Catequesis y Aparecida. ¡Te espero!

3-51 EL MINISTERIO DE LA RECONCILIACIÓN DE JESÚS

Uno de los retos más grandes que tenemos es saber cómo reconciliarnos. Esta sesión muestra cómo Jesús nos deja un modelo para saber reconciliarnos, con los demás y con Dios. Utilizando la imagen y el gesto, los participantes descubrirán, paso a paso, como Jesús modela el ministerio de la reconciliación en un pasaje del Evangelio según San Juan. La misión, la amabilidad, la hospitalidad y la ternura forman parte del ministerio de la reconciliación que modela Jesús. Ven y descubre como Jesús mismo nos da los pasos necesarios para realizar el ministerio de reconciliación!

Ser testigos de Cristo en el contexto de la Nueva Evangelización significa recuperar el carácter luminoso propio de la fe, especialmente en nuestras familias. 3-53 EL PAPA FRANCISCO: ¿ADÓNDE NOS LLEVA?

Hace un año que inesperadamente apareció la figura luminosa del Papa Francisco y un terremoto comenzó a sacudirnos. El ministerio energético del Papa se enfoca en una seria reforma interna y externa de la Iglesia como institución y como Pueblo de Dios. Sin duda las directrices del Papa retoman el camino de renovación propuesta por el Segundo Concilio Vaticano. Las raíces de su visión atrayente se encuentran en la “conversión pastoral” delineada por la Iglesia en América Latina en la Conferencia de Aparecida de 2007 que tanto inspiró al Papa Francisco. ¿Cómo se entiende esto y cómo se puede poner en práctica las consecuencias de esta conversión en las parroquias, programas de catequesis y formación religiosa y en la vida de todos nosotros ministros y agentes de pastoral hispanos en los Estados Unidos hoy? ¿Seremos simplemente admiradores y espectadores de la historia que este Vicario de Cristo hace o seremos colaboradores y agentes suyos en este momento inesperado de gracia?

Allan Figueroa Deck, SJ

3-54 LA INICIACIÓN CRISTIANA: ¿ILUSIÓN O DESAFÍO?

La Iglesia desde los tiempos apostólicos, impulsada por el mandato pascual del Señor, a quienes acogían la Buena Noticia de Salvación, los fue acompañando por caminos de la iniciación cristiana. Un itinerario que no siempre tuvo un mismo ritmo ni un mismo método… (Cf CEC 1229). La realidad cultural ha cambiado vertiginosamente en las últimas décadas. La invitación a una Nueva Evangelización reclama un nuevo estilo de iniciación cristiana. En esta conferencia intentaremos ensayar respuestas, tomar decisiones, planear nuevas acciones que renueven nuestro servicio evangelizador en la iniciación a la vida cristiana…

Rev. Fabian Oscar Esparafita

3-55 ¡CONÉCTATE A LA ESPERANZA! ANUNCIAR LA BUENA NOTICIA EN LA ERA DIGITAL.

La era digital es un desafío actual e importante para los catequistas y educadores cristianos. El “continente digital” es el hábitat en el que ya vivimos, nos movemos y existimos. Especialmente los jóvenes y los niños son “nativos digitales” (digital natives) y necesitan acoger la Buena Noticia de Jesús en su contexto. Una Nueva Evangelización requiere que sea contextualizada en nuevos espacios y lugares. La Iglesia tiene el deber y la responsabilidad de anunciar la Buena Noticia a las nuevas generaciones que viven “en-redados” (Internet) y “siempre conectados” (always on). Conocer con más profundidad esta “cultura digital” y la “era de la información” nos ayudará, sin duda, a realizar mejor nuestra tarea en el ámbito de la educación de la fe y la evangelización. Esta conferencia quiere ofrecerte una buena oportunidad para comprender, con sencillez y profundidad todo lo que está en juego.

Autor de “Los cinco minutos de la Nueva Evangelización,” varios libros y artículos, así como editor del conocido blog especializado en vida religiosa.

3-56 ¿DÓNDE QUEDÓ LA ALEGRIÁ DE TU MINISTERIO?

La esperanza es una virtud, pero también un estado de ánimo. Se apaga la alegría de tu servicio en la parroquia cuando no ves mucha esperanza en lo que está sucediendo. Veamos de cerca y hablemos de ti, de tu auto-estima, de tu liderazgo, de lo que no te ayuda a seguir adelante con entusiasmo. ¿Qué es lo que Dios quiere de ti?

Domingo Rodríguez Zambrana, ST
Radica en Maryland, el padre Domingo Rodríguez Zambrana es el Vicario General y Procurador de Misiones de los Siervos Misioneros de la Santísima Trinidad así como facilitador de retiros, misiones y conferencias. 3-57 VIVIENDO LA MISIÓN DE JESÚS EN NUESTRO MUNDO DE HOY.

Como gente de fe, hemos sido enviados para participar en la misión evangelizadora de la iglesia, para proclamar la Buena Nueva, actuar con justicia, amar con ternura y dar testimonio de nuestra relación con Jesucristo. Esta sesión examinará las esperanzas y los retos implicados en la realización de esta visión y misión en el mundo de hoy.

Cardenal Oscar Rodríguez Maradiaga

3-58 EL LIDERAZGO DE JESÚS: LECCIONES DE ESPERANZA.

¿Quién es el líder más grande de la historia? ¿Cuáles son las características que definen a ese gran líder? ¿Qué lecciones podemos aprender de ese gran líder? ¿Cómo podemos usar esas lecciones en nuestro ministerio como líderes catequéticos, catequistas, evangelizadores, padres y madres de familia? En esta conferencia exploraremos estas preguntas y otras relacionadas con el liderazgo cristiano. El liderazgo de Jesús es un liderazgo que nos lleva a la acción, a la esperanza y a la seguridad de que es posible trabajar por una sociedad más justa y llena de paz.

Durante los últimos 10 años sirvió en el Comité de Evangelización y Catequesis de la Conferencia Católica de Obispos en los Estados Unidos.
4-51 VIOLENCIA DOMÉSTICA: COMO LA IGLESIA DEBE RESPONDER

La violencia doméstica es demasiado común en nuestras comunidades. Pero pocas parroquias y diócesis responden al dolor y sufrimiento de las víctimas de la violencia. Las víctimas sufren solas y en secreto. Sin embargo, nuestras parroquias deben reflejar la compasión de Jesús, respondiendo a las víctimas de violencia doméstica y a sus hijos, con comprensión y apoyo para que se liberen de la violencia. En esta conferencia aprenderán sobre la dinámica de la violencia doméstica, la resistencia de la Iglesia de tocar el tema de violencia doméstica y los pasos prácticos para desarrollar un ministerio parroquial para las víctimas.

4-54 CATOLICISMO LATINO: LA TRANSFORMACIÓN DE LA IGLESIA EN ESTADOS UNIDOS

¡La importancia de los hispanos no consiste solo en su presencia significativa que sigue aumentando! Las contribuciones hispanas a la Iglesia empezaron siglos antes de que los Estados Unidos existiera como nación. Hoy en día los hispanos transforman la vida católica en parroquias, movimientos apostólicos, liturgia y devoción, la formación de nuestros niños y jóvenes en la fe, y mucho más. 4-55 EVANGELIZACIÓN Y CATEQUESIS EN EL MINISTERIO HISPANO: POSIBILIDADES

Cuando la evangelización y la catequesis están íntimamente compenetradas, nuestras familias y comunidades participan de una experiencia única que les permite gozar de la esperanza que enciende corazones. Toda catequesis debe ser evangelizadora; toda forma de evangelización debe tener un espíritu catequético. En esta conferencia exploraremos cómo esta relación íntima se hace vida en el contexto del ministerio hispano en los Estados Unidos.

4-56 LA AMISTAD CULMINA EN LA CARIDAD: ACTITUDES CRISTIANAS SEGÚN LUCAS
Abundio Parra Sánchez

Todo cristiano asume las implicaciones de la fe, la esperanza y la caridad como esencia de su ser y actuar. Por su parte, muchos textos de la Escritura resaltan el papel de las actitudes previas: la fe se muestra en la fidelidad; la paciencia precede a la esperanza; y la amistad culmina en la caridad. ¿Qué dice al respecto Jesús en el Evangelio de Lucas?

En su homilía inaugural, el Papa Francisco se comprometió a “abrazar con ternura y efusión a toda la humanidad, especialmente a los más pobres, a los más débiles, a los menos importantes, a todos aquellos que están en la lista que Mateo hace cuando habla sobre el juzgamiento final del amor: los hambrientos, los sedientos, los extranjeros, los desnudos, los enfermos y aquellos que están en prisión.” ¿Nosotros no podemos hacer menos que esto! 5-53 ¿ACTúa DIos en el MUNDO? EL FACTOR PROVIDENCIA
Teresa Forcades i Vila (biografía 1-54)
Un líder ha de tener claro si Dios actúa o no en el mundo y como lo hace. La providencia es la garantía que nos da Dios que en cualquier circunstancia de nuestra vida, por dura o desesperada que sea, nos es posible realizar un acto libre de amor en la acción directa de la historia. En esta conferencia conversaremos sobre cuál ha de ser nuestra respuesta activa de amor ante los desafíos de la sociedad.

5-54 10 ENSEñANZAS DEL PAPA FRANCISCO PARA LOS CATEQUISTAS
Los gestos y palabras del papa Francisco representan una verdadera primavera para la Iglesia y una fuente actual para renovar la vocación de los catequistas. Sus enseñanzas nos señalan actitudes para vivir y prioridades para la misión. Su testimonio es una guía para revisar nuestra vida en el espíritu de Jesús Maestro. Contemplar a Francisco nos brinda claves para pensar la catequesis de hoy, caminar en la Iglesia con fidelidad al Evangelio y vivir como discípulos misioneros.

5-55 LA HISTORIA, FUENTE DE ESPERANZA
La aventura humana parece abocada irremediablemente a un fin irreversible e irremediable. ¿La existencia del hombre en el planeta tierra: un error divino, o un fracaso de Dios? A medida que avanza el tiempo, y los progresos humanos parecen suplantar la necesidad de Dios, nada parece predecir esperanza alguna en el campo de la fe y de la religión. Además la desaparición de nuestro planeta es un dato científico indiscutible, ¿Qué esperanza queda para una humanidad que vive en un callejón sin salida? La fe, sin embargo, prevé todo esto y tiene una respuesta luminosa y cargada de esperanza. La visión cósmica en las Escrituras hebreas y cristianas nos lo anuncian. La persona de Jesucristo y su mensaje es la propuesta y la respuesta final.

5-56 ¿NÁUFRAGOS O NAVEGANTES? CONSEJOS PARA MENSAJEROS DE LA ESPERANZA
Rev. Fernando Prado, CMF
El Papa Francisco ha hablado de nuestra cultura actual como una “cultura del naufragio.” El naufrago camina solo, a la deriva. Hoy, en la era digital, a pesar de estar quizá más conectados que nunca, paradójicamente, tenemos el sentimiento de estar, a su vez, más solos que nunca. No son pocos los que naufragan en la red: soledad, adicciones, escataporias... Sin embargo, el creyente sabe que con Jesús se navega mejor. El creyente nunca está solo. Nunca es un naufrago. Siempre es un navegante. Esta conferencia quiere ofrecerte pautas y consejos para ser un buen navegante en la era digital y convertirte como catequista y educador cristiano en un verdadero “mensajero/a de la esperanza.”

Domingo Rodríguez Zambrana, ST (biografía 3-56)

Los comprometidos en los ministerios parroquiales son los que fueron llamados por el Espíritu - y el Espíritu no se equivoca. Entonces, ¿cómo seguir sirviendo con tantos tropezones? En esto el tolerar y perdonar son indispensables, pero no todos son capaces. El perdón no es lo mismo que la reconciliación. Detallamos la experiencia del perdonar.

6-54 CONECTANDO LA VIDA, LA CATEQUESIS Y LA LITURGIA

La liturgia es la mejor expresión de la fe de la comunidad cristiana en Cristo verdadero Dios y verdadero hombre. En ella celebramos el triunfo de Cristo sobre el pecado y la muerte, al mismo tiempo que proclamamos su presencia en nuestras luchas diarias. La Misa es un adelanto del cielo, pero también es un compromiso con nuestro mundo. En esta conferencia estudiaremos como los gestos, símbolos y acciones litúrgicas que son acciones humanas al mismo tiempo nos introducen en el misterio inabarcable de Dios.

6-55 LOS SIETE HÁBITOS DE CATÓLICOS EVANGELIZADORES

Cada católico está llamado a vivir su fe y compartirla con los demás. ¿Sin embargo, como lo debemos hacer? La Iglesia nos presenta el ejemplo de los grandes santos, cuyas vidas dan testimonio de lo que significa ser mensajeros y embajadores alegres del Señor. En esta conferencia práctica e informativo, el evangelista internacional, Héctor Molina, nos presentará los siete hábitos comunes de estos Santos evangelizadores y cómo podemos incorporarlos en nuestras vidas diarias para ganar almas para Cristo.

6-56 QUE LAS HIJAS PUEDAN VIVIR

Nada desafía nuestra fe más profundamente que la experiencia del sufrimiento y la maldad prolongada. Desde 1993 las mujeres en Ciudad Juárez, México, han conocido los grandes azotes de la maldad. Muchas han sido asesinadas de una manera brutal. Sin embargo, las madres, hermanas, tías y amigos de las víctimas se han opuesto públicamente a esta maldad y, al hacerlo, nos han enseñado mucho acerca de la fe y de las formas en que experimentamos la salvación en nuestras vidas en el presente. Vengan a aprender 10 que las mujeres de Ciudad Juárez tienen que enseñarnos.

6-57 EL PAPEL DE PADRES EN EL PROCESO DE RICA

Como despertar y encender la fe en los padres de familia cuyos niños están involucrados en el proceso de RICA (ritual de iniciación cristiana de adultos) para que sean los primeros maestros en jornada de fe.

Rev. Richard Vega

6-58 ESTAMOS ESTRENANDO PÁRROCO: “PADRE FRANCISCO”

Imagina por un momento que el papa Francisco fuera asignado a tu parroquia como párroco. En la realidad en que vives, ¿cuáles serían sus prioridades? ¿Cómo organizaria la comunidad? ¿Qué tipo de catequistas y agentes de pastoral promovería? ¿Cuál sería el rol del diácono permanente y de los sacerdotes? La característica más sobresaliente del papa Francisco es de “pastor.” A partir de su actuar en Buenos Aires y en Roma vamos a dibujar un proyecto pastoral para la parroquia al estilo “Francisco de Latinoamérica.”

7-51 RENOVANDO LA IGLESIA

7-52 ALGUIEN ESTÁ ORANDO POR MÍ

Hna. Glenda Valeska Hernandez (biografía 1-56)
Nos adentraremos en el misterio de la oración de unos por otros; en los diferentes tipos y formas que aparecen en la Biblia y ha utilizado la Iglesia a lo largo de los siglos; también la experiencia de algunos santos iluminarán nuestra vivencia de que siempre, en el cielo y en la tierra, hay alguien que está orando por mí!

7-53 LA IGLESIA, ¿PROBLEMA O SOLUCIÓN?

Hernán Pereda Bullrich (biografía 5-55)
Jesucristo ha creado el movimiento de mayor expansión en el mundo, superando razas, culturas, continentess desafiando el tiempo, los progresos humanos y las nuevas mentalidades. El problema no es hoy Jesucristo sino su Iglesia. Pero Jesucristo sin su Iglesia pasa a ser un ser del pasado, inoperante y puro dato histórico. Así es como se han multiplicado “las Iglesias,” pero éstas, ¿resuelven o complican? La multiplicación de las Iglesias no resuelve sino agudizan el problema. Las distintas formas de persecución de la Iglesia no son sino un dato anunciado por el mismo Jesucristo: “si me han perseguido a mí, los perseguirán a ustedes.” Es que a Jesucristo en su tiempo, tampoco se lo podía ver “ni en pintura.” Conclusión: la Iglesia debe seguir avanzando en el camino de su identidad, conocimiento propio y crecimiento con una esperanza cuyo fin y éxito final está anunciado pero éste, solo se lo puede “ver” desde la fe en un proyecto que va por caminos y vericuetos insospechados.

7-54 ORANDO CON NUESTRAS VOCES Y CUERPOS

La oración nos invita a experimentar más profundamente la presencia activa de Dios en nuestras vidas. Cuando oramos a través del canto y la danza sagrada, nuestros cuerpos celebran la grandeza de Dios (Lucas 1:46-47). Vengan a cantar y danzar, profundicen su intimidad con Dios. No solo examinaremos la oración a través del canto y la danza sagrada, sino también ampliaremos nuestra comprensión de esta forma de oración. Levanten sus voces en el canto, tomen el paso en la danza.

7-55 RESULTADOS DE NUESTRA EVANGELIZACIÓN Y PASTORAL SI NO INCULTURAMOS EL EVANGELIO Y LA IGLESIA

Según el documento, “Cantemos al Señor: La Música en el Culto Divino”: “La formación musical de la asamblea debe ser una preocupación constante.” Esta formación debe incluir aprendizaje sobre los recursos musicales del pueblo – los himnarios o misales – y específicamente, cómo seguir la música escrita que estos contienen. En esta sesión, aprenderemos en grupo los fundamentos de ritmo y melodía, incluso cómo funciona el pentagrama, para que usted pueda cantar mejor los cantos en la Misa y así alzar sus alabanzas a nuestro Dios.

8-56 ¿CÓMO ENTENDER LA NUEVA EVANGELIZACIÓN PARA ENCENDER LA ESPERANZA?
La Nueva Evangelización es el horizonte de la Iglesia para los próximos años. Un mundo con diversidad de culturas es una oportunidad y un desafío para encender la esperanza con el anuncio de la Buena Noticia de Jesús. Un recorrido histórico nos ayudará a reconocer sus raíces desde el Concilio Vaticano II hasta el Sínodo de la Nueva Evangelización. El papa Francisco nos ofrece con su ejemplo un testimonio renovador para la misión. ¿Qué desafíos para evangelizar nos plantea la palabra de la Iglesia a luz de sus más recientes enseñanzas?

Marcelo A. Murúa (biografía 5-54)

8-57 EL PODER DE LA ESPERANZA
¿Cuántas veces te has sentido sin ánimo, sin ganas de seguir caminando? ¿Qué ha sido lo que te ha mantenido de pie y te ha dado fuerza? La esperanza es el motor que nos impulsa a seguir caminando, a seguir luchando en medio de las dificultades. Veremos cómo la esperanza cristiana, una de las virtudes teologales, nos desafía y nos anima a la vez; y cómo nosotros podemos ser profesas, líderes, padres y madres de familia que ayuden a los niños, jóvenes y adultos a construir caminos de esperanza en medio de un mundo que a veces pierde el rumbo hacia Dios.

Maruja Sedano (biografía 3-58)

8-58 EVANGELIZAR A TRAVÉS DE LA FOTOGRAFÍA
El objetivo de esta conferencia es ofrecer ideas innovadoras para utilizar la fotografía como medio de evangelización, tanto a nivel teórico como práctico.

Hna. Xiskya Lucia Valladares (biografía 4-58)

REGLAMENTACION DEL CENTRO DE CONVENCONES
Por favor respete todas las reglas para participantes del Congreso:
1. Está prohibido acampar o realizar picnic en el estacionamiento del Centro de Convenciones.
2. Ninguna organización privada, expositor o particular puede distribuir o vender alimentos o bebidas.
Esta es una clara infracción del contrato con el Centro de Convenciones, quien da derechos exclusivamente a Aramak Food Service, Inc. y también irrespesta la regulación del Orange County Board of Health.

PERSONAS CON DISCAPACIDADES
El Comité del Congreso de Educación Religiosa desea que disfrute de su experiencia en el congreso y le ofrece las siguientes opciones:
- Si necesita que un asistente le acompañe a sus conferencias y otros eventos del congreso, adjunte su tarjeta de registro con la suya, y envíela en el mismo sobre con una nota explicando que ambos necesitan ser registrados en los mismos conferencias. Es esencial que se registre antes del 4 de enero de 2013.
- Las distancias entre el centro de convenciones y hoteles vecinos son bastante grandes. Si así lo desea, usted puede pedir ser registrado solo para conferencias dentro del centro de convenciones, es muy importante que incluya una nota con su tarjeta de registro al tiempo de enviarla.
- NOTA: El Centro de Convenciones no proporciona sillas de ruedas. Si desea rentar una, póngase en contacto con la Farmacia Alpha Drugs en cualquiera de sus dos localidades en Anaheim: 1240 S. Magnolia, (714) 220-0373; or 515 S. Beach Blvd., (714) 821-8959.
Si tiene preguntas o inquietudes sobre su capacidad para asistir o disfrutar del congreso debido al acceso de discapacidad o problemas de movilidad, no dude en ponerse en contacto con Rob Williams en RECMobility@recongress.org. Durante el Congreso puede acudir al Equipo de Movilidad que está situado justo fuera de las Oficinas Centrales del Congreso “Headquarters” (AR-1), en el pasillo entre la sala de exhibiciones y la entrada de la Arena.

FONDO DE APOYO
La Oficina de Educación Religiosa ha establecido un fondo de apoyo (Endowment Fund), que se alimenta de donaciones el cual permite la formación continua de los líderes catequéticos ofreciéndoles becas escolares para estudios avanzados. Deseamos que cada director/a de educación religiosa y cada director/a de pastoral juveniles, tengan la oportunidad de obtener el grado universitario de maestría en Estudios Religiosos. Si usted desea contribuir a este fondo, favor de enviar su donativo a la dirección que se proporciona a continuación. Tendremos una colecta especial para este fondo durante las liturgias del sábado.

The Anaheim Resort Transit (ART) replaces individual hotel shuttle service to locations throughout the Anaheim Resort District. ART’s fleet of vehicles runs along nine routes that connect hotels, Disneyland, Disney California Adventure, Downtown Disney and the Anaheim Convention Center with shopping, dining and evening entertainment. ART schedules and system maps, adult and child passes, display materials and signage will be available at all participating hotels in the Anaheim Resort District.

Service Schedule: Daily service begins 60 minutes before area theme parks open and concludes 30 minutes after closing. Disneyland’s East Esplanade offers ART guests priority pick-up and drop-off locations. During peak periods or special events, 10-minute frequency services early morning and evening high-demand periods. Non-peak periods are serviced with 20-minute frequency.

Fares & Passes: ART adult all-day passes can be purchased by cash, ATM and credit card at $5 per day (children 3-9 are $2 per day) for unlimited use; three-day adult passes are priced at $12 (children 3-9 are $3) per day, and five-day adult passes are $20 (children 3-9 are $5). Children 2 and under are free.

Passes are available from:
- The Front Desk of all participating ART properties.
- ART kiosks located at 13 locations throughout the Resort.
- On-board, guests may purchase one-way, one-time, cash-only fares of $5 for adults; children 3-9 are $2; under 2 are free.

HOTEL FACILITIES/HOSPITALITY

We have always asked that everyone observe the rules and regulations of the hotels regarding food and beverages in their rooms. Hotel regulations regarding food are as follows:

1. THE CITY OF ANAHEIM PROHIBITS THE USE OF ANY TYPE OF COOKING APPLIANCES. This includes microwave ovens, warming ovens, toasters or any type of similar appliances.

2. FOOD AND BEVERAGES – OTHER THAN THOSE PROVIDED BY HOTEL CATERING DEPARTMENTS – ARE FORBIDDEN IN ROOMS. Notices will be filed with the management if anything is found in the rooms by housekeeping personnel. Hotel management will take appropriate action.

Knowing that many parishes do provide hospitality for their people, we have contacted the catering managers of all major hotels, and they have agreed to work very closely with us in providing a variety of reasonably priced food and beverages. They can also set up banquets in their meeting rooms, as well. For your convenience, we have listed the contact person at some of these facilities.

SERVICES FOR THE DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING

We will make every effort to assure that Congress 2014 is accessible to Deaf and Hard of Hearing persons. Please let us know if you have need of interpreters or Assistive Listening Devices.

We encourage you to contact the Religious Education Congress staff by February 14, 2014, at (213) 637-7348 to be sure your request has been received. The Closing Liturgy on Sunday will be interpreted. Special seating for all deaf community members is located near the front right of the Arena floor. If you would like another Mass interpreted, you may request an interpreter upon your arrival.

If you wish to add, drop or change a request AFTER you arrive, ask Interpreting Services, located just outside Congress Headquarters (AR-1), in the Arena Lobby area. While we can accommodate most requests for last-minute changes, we cannot guarantee an interpreter will be available.

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

The Religious Education Congress Committee wants you to enjoy your Congress experience and offers the following options:

- It is our desire to meet the needs of all those requiring assistance. If you need an attendant to accompany you, we ask that only one attendant accompany you to workshops and other Congress events. If an attendant is to accompany you, it is important to mail your registration – along with your attendant’s – in the same envelope with a note explaining that both need to be registered in the same workshops. It is essential that you register by January 22, 2014.

- The distances between the Convention Center and surrounding hotels are quite large. However, the Convention Center has a free shuttle service to Convention Center buildings. If you would like to be scheduled for Convention Center-only workshops, please include a note with your registration card.

- NOTE: The Convention Center does not provide wheelchairs. Please contact Alpha Drugs Pharmacy at either of their two locations in Anaheim: 1240 S. Magnolia, (714) 220-0373; or 515 S. Beach Blvd., (714) 821-8959.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding your ability to attend or enjoy RECongress due to handicap access or mobility concerns, please feel free to contact Rob Williams at RECmobility@recongress.org. RECongress’ Mobility Team will be available to help with wheelchair transport, special seating and any access issues within Congress. At Congress you can find the Mobility Team located just outside Congress Headquarters (AR-1), in the Arena Lobby area.

For your convenience, we have listed the contact person at some of these facilities.
